The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did: The defendant was a passenger of a vehicle that was stopped and the driver was arrested for DUI. I allowed the defendant to get her belongings from the vehicle and asked her to stand around the corner on the sidewalk to wait for her ride. The defendant was intoxicated and her speech was slurred and she stumbled as she walked. She had dried blood on her shirt, face and knee. It appeared she had fallen earlier. When I asked her about it she told me not to worry about it and it was none of my business. She refused to listen to my commands to stay on the sidewalk. Her friends tried to get her to listen and She started arguing and yelling with her friend and going out into the middle of traffic. There was heavy traffic in the area. I told her to get out of the road and she said no and ran in front of a truck. The truck slammed his brakes and tried to go around she danced in front of the vehicle not letting him pass. She refused to comply when I told her to get out of the street. She refused to follow lawful commands and was causing a disturbance, blocking the roadway and was a danger to herself and drivers. I placed her under arrest and transported her to jail. Defendant ID'd by DAVID photo.
Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge.
