The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did: The defendant was consuming a large amount of alcohol at Armature Works Rooftop Bar, and became very intoxicated. Security for the Roof Top bar attempted to escort the defendant outside the premise, but the defendant attempted to strike the victim (security) and missed. The victim then defended himself and struck the defendant back, and escorted the defendant to the ground. Upon exiting the premise, the defendant leaped up and attempted to attack the victim once again. The victim defended himself once more and struck the defendant, due to being in fear that harm would occur to himself if he did not defend himself.
