The altercation became physical when the defendant struck victim numerous times on the upper body and face area with closed fists. The defendant threw the victim down. The defendant and victim wrestled until the defendant bit the victim on the chest area. The victim was able to place the defendant in a head lock until the defendant advised she will discontinue the altercation. The defendant left the victim's bedroom. The victim was able to contact law enforcement shortly after. Upon arrival, I observed numerous contusions on the victim's face, breast area, and arms.
