Probable Cause

On January 5, 2019 at approximately 2100 hrs, I Officer Alan Webb was traveling north on Seminole Pratt Whitney Rd when I observed a red in color sedan bearing FL tag BNLI13 stopped in the road with its hazards on. As I approached I could see the vehicle had front end damage to the bumper. I could see the passenger side bumper was hanging off and lying on the ground. I activated my blue lights and exited my vehicle. I made contact with a female driver whom was visibly shaken and upset. The vehicle was running and the driver was in the drivers seat on the phone. I identified her by valid FL DL # F360204835970 as Elysa D. Feder of Delray Beach, Fl. I detected a slight odor of alcoholic beverage emitting from her breath as she sat in the vehicle. I also observed a wine glass in her purse as well as a box of pizza on her passenger seat. I asked her where she was coming from and she said "Delray". I asked her where she was going too and she replied West Palm. Her speech was slurred and thick tounge. Her pupils were dilated and glossy. I asked her to exit the vehicle and she was slow to exit and appeared uneasy on her feet at first as she walked to the front of her vehicle. I showed her the damage to the front end of her vehicle and she began to get very nervous. I then observed the roof of her vehicle had sustained damage as well as scrapes on the passenger side front quarter panel and passenger side front door. The passenger mirror was damaged and had been struck causing it to fold into the passenger side window and shatter the mirror. I asked what she hit and she advised me she did not know. I again detected an odor of alcoholic beverage emitting from her breath as she spoke and I noticed her beginning to get cotton mouth. I asked her if she had taken any medication and she admitted to taking Xanax. At that time, I had probable cause to believe that Ms. Feder was intoxicated. I requested that she perform Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks to which she agreed. At the conclusion of the tasks I determined her faculties were impaired and she had exhibited numerous clues to lead me to believe she was intoxicated and driving under the influence. Ms. Feder was placed into custody and transported to Palm Beach County Jail without incident. Please see Incident Report from officer to be completed at later date and turned into State Attorneys Office.
