NOTICE OF DEFENDANT'S INVOCATION
OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

The undersigned, having been advised that I have been arrested and charged with a delinquent act/crime, do hereby invoke my RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT and to the assistance of counsel under the 5th and 6th Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article 1, Section 9 of the Florida Constitution, with respect to the above case number and any and all other charges for which I appeared at first appearance court on the date hereof.

Furthermore, I do hereby invoke my RIGHT TO COUNSEL guaranteed by Article I, Section 16 of the Florida Constitution; Rule 3.130, Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure; and the 5th and 6th Amendments to the United States Constitution, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in Miranda v Arizona, U.S. 436, 16 L.Ed. 2d 694, 86 S. Ct. 1602 (1966); Edwards v Arizona, 451 U.S. 477, 68 L. Ed. 378, 101 S. Ct. 1880 (1981); and McNeil v Wisconsin, 501 U.S. 171, 115 L. Ed. 2d 158, 111 S. Ct. 2204 (1991). By invocation of my 5th and 6th Amendment RIGHT TO COUNSEL, under the Miranda and Edwards decisions, I intend this to be an absolute expression of my desire for the assistance of an attorney in dealing with any custodial interrogation by the police about this arrest or any other crime or criminal activity under investigation.

Therefore, I demand that no local, State or Federal police or prosecution personnel, nor detention, jail or prison personnel (including jail inmates acting at the request or direction of such personnel), attempt to engage me in any conversation whatsoever, concerning any crime or criminal activity, without first providing me an attorney and having that attorney present.

This Invocation of Rights shall not be deemed to have been waived by me unless an attorney has been provided to me, either retained or appointed, and I execute a written waiver of these rights, signed by myself and my attorney. Anyone violating this INVOCATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS will be subject to legal action for sanctions and/or damages.

I further demand that an original of this Invocation of Rights be served on the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office, with instructions that I do not wish to have contact with any law enforcement officer unless my attorney is present.
