The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did On the listed date, time, and location, the defendant was engaged in a verbal altercation with the victim. The altercation turned physical, when the defendant grabbed and pushed the victim with open hands within the kitchen area of the residence. The victim stumbled from the push and hit her head on a table within the dining room of the residence. The victim suffered a small laceration to the right side of the forehead. The defendant and the victim have been married since 2008, and have lived together as a family since that time. Post Miranda, the defendant admitted to pushing the victim after the argument. The victim positively identified the defendant as the person who committed the offense. The defendant identified himself verbally and via his FLDL.

Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge. For Notices to Appear, I also certify that a complete list of witnesses and evidence known to me is attached.
