| The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, didThe listed defendant and victim are legally married and live together as a family with one child in common. The defendant and victim were involved in a verbal dispute that led to the defendant pushing the victim, causing her to fall and hit her head on the wall. The victim then grabbed her phone to call 911 and the defendant removed the phone from her hand depriving the victim from calling 911. The victim then asked the witness for his phone and the defendant instructed the witness not to give the victim his phone. The victim suffered a minor injury to her head and complained of pain to her left arm and right knee. The victim was treated on scene by TFR. The victim identified the defendant on scene. The defendant's was identified via his FL DL photo. |                                                            |                                             |                                     |                                                                                                                                    |                                      |                                                                                        |  |
