The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did: The defendant was causing a disturbance while inside Paddy Wagon Irish Pub located at 813 Tampa St N. The victim, a security employee at this establishment, asked the defendant to leave several times but the defendant refused. Ultimately, the victim was able to escort the defendant outside of this establishment, where the defendant became irate and picked up a chair then threw it at the defendant. This chair struck the defendant in the right wrist, causing no injury. The defendant left for a brief second and upon returning back to this location, he began kicking chairs towards other customers and threatening the victim further. The defendant was located nearby while walking back towards this location and was visually at this time identified by the victim. The defendant did appear to be intoxicated. The victim was ID via his VA driver's license.
Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge. For Notices to Appear, I also certify that a complete list of witnesses and evidence known to me is attached.
