three times with an open palm to his lip area causing a visible small swelling to form on his bottom lip

The def who was read her Miranda Rights via a department issued text stated that she intentionally pushed the victim in his shoulder area due to him yelling profanities at her while in the elevator. The def denied striking him in his lip area and stated that she believes he attempted to bite her middle finger after she presented it to him during the argument however no marks were visible on the def's fingers.

The victim does not wish to prosecute and refused to provide a sworn statement or any photographs. The victim denied any treatment on scene. This incident was brought to officer's attention when Memorial West Security observed the def crying. No witnesses observed this incident and CCTV from the elevator is not available.
