The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did:

The on listed date and time the defendant was discovered to be in room #648 at the Sheraton Hotel located at 200 N Ashley Dr by the general manager (Complainant). The defendant was not listed as a guest and the previous guest in the room had checked out. It was unknown to the complainant how the defendant ended up in the room. The defendant was asked several times by the complainant to leave the property so the room could be prepped for the next guest but the defendant refused to leave and continuously argued with the complainant. Upon affiant's arrival, the defendant was still arguing with the complainant. The complainant told the defendant she was trespassed from the property and no longer welcome while in the presence of affiant. Affiant explained to the defendant she needed to leave the property but she still refused to get her belongings and leave. The defendant was willfully and intentionally on the Sheraton property without authorization, warned by the representative of the premises to depart and refused to do so.

The defendant's identity was confirmed via Massachusetts drivers license.

Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge. For Notices to Appear, I also certify that a complete list of witnesses and evidence known to me is attached.
