☑ Marsy's Law CVI FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On 10/29/2022 at approximately 23:48 hours I responded to [redacted] in reference to the report of a domestic disturbance in progress involving a 26 year-old male in a physical fight with [redacted] Upon arrival to the residence the [redacted] were in the entry to the home and a loud banging could be heard coming from the second floor. They advised that their [redacted] was destroying the drywall and smashing items upstairs.

A short time later W/M James N. Karavitis DOB: 03/04/1996 came down stairs and became enraged that the family had called police. He then forced open the front door with his shoulder exiting the residence. D/S then detained him in handcuffs that were double locked and checked for proper fit before securing him in the rear of my marked patrol vehicle.

I then spoke with each of the family members. I first spoke with W/M [redacted] had the neck of his shirt ripped and a scratch across his upper chest. He further had marks like he had been struck in the head several times and a cut on the bridge of his nose. [redacted] stated that he came in from t walking the family dogs when he heard a loud commotion on the second floor of the residence. He stated that he went upstairs to find that his [redacted] had punched several holes in the drywall and doors of the residence as well as broke a picture frame that was hanging on the wall. [redacted] stated that his [redacted] has done damage to the residence like this before and that he would not stand for it any more. He stated that his [redacted] tried to keep him out of James' room but he went in to confront him about the damage to the home. [redacted] stated that James then attacked him. He was tackled to the ground and punched with a closed fist by James several times. He stated he was able to get away and retreated to the first floor while James continued to damage the second floor if the residence.

I then spoke with W/F [redacted] stated that earlier in the night her [redacted] went to a party with [redacted] and returned to the residence under the influence of alcohol. She stated that he had a verbal altercation with [redacted] who left the residence. She stated that James is diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome and behavioral disorders. She stated that he became enraged after the argument with [redacted] and began to damage the walls and doors of the house. She stated that she calmed him down and got him to go in his room to lay down. She stated a short time later [redacted] returned to the residence and saw the damage to the house. She stated that [redacted] wanted to confront James and she tried to keep him from entering the room. She stated that James observed this at the doorway to his bedroom and attacked [redacted]. She stated that she had to physically pull James off of his [redacted]

I then spoke with W/F [redacted] She stated that she was downstairs in the living room of the residence when she heard her [redacted] begin to damage the home. She stated that she heard her [redacted] go upstairs to attempt to get James under control. She stated that she heard yelling coming from upstairs, but did not witness the incident. A short time later her [redacted] came downstairs with a torn shirt and visible injuries. She stated that he told her James had attacked him.

Based on the aforementioned investigation I find probable cause to arrest and charge W/M James N. Karavitis DOB: 03/04/1996 with battery (domestic) pursuant to Florida State Statute 784.03(1)(A)(1). The family declined to press charges for the extensive property damage that resulted from the incident.

[redacted] was provided with a Victim's Rights Pamphlet which he signed a receipt for. He elected to enact Marsy's Law.
