| The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did:The defendant was driving a blue Lotus Evora ( WA BTA8948) that was stopped after it almost struck a Tampa Fire Rescue officer working the scene of a vehicle fire at the top of the I275 exit ramp for Howard Av. During observations, his eyes were red and glassy and there was the distinct odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath. He was unsteady on his feet and stated he drank two beers at the Hub. He began complaining of physical pain during SFSTs and was arrested for DUI. He was taken to CBT where he provided breath samples of .200 / .190. The defendant's identity was verified using his state of Florida driver's license. |                                                             |                                                                                                                                      |                                                                |                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                              |                                                               |                    |
