Probable Cause Affidavit

Before me this date personally appeared MCWILLIAMS, ROSHANDA L (3778) who being first duly sworn deposes and says that on 5 day of June (year) 2022 at (crime location) the above named defendant committed the above offenses charged and the facts showing probable cause to believe the same are as follows their 15-day-old baby girl advised while feeding their child inside their master bedroom The defendant became upset because she was not receptive to his parenting style stated she attempted to avoid the defendant by walking off into her son's room with their daughter The defendant followed her into the next room and continued the verbal altercation advised she returned to the master bedroom with their daughter, at which point the defendant took the baby from the victim before placing her in the crib stated she attempted to secure her cellphone with the intention of contacting 911 but did not announce this to the defendant The defendant snatched the phone out of her hand, which led to a physical altercation advised the defendant grabbed both her hands before throwing her onto the bed then stated she bit the defendant twice on both arms and lower back area in an attempt to escape, however, the defendant struck her once across the face causing bruising to her lip and a knot to her right temple

I then spoke to the defendant, who advised a verbal argument ensued because he felt she was excluding him from spending time with their daughter The defendant denied attacking and stated she injured him during the verbal altercation

The defendant was read his Miranda Warning via pretext card by this officer, which he waived, desiring to speak to me The defendant advised he became upset because the victim did not fully respect his decisions as a parent and man The defendant did admit to depriving of retrieving her phone Additionally, the defendant stated that he

Before me this date personally appeared MCWILLIAMS, ROSHANDA L (3778) who being first duly sworn deposes and says that on 5 day of June, (year) 2022 at [REDACTED] (crime location) the above named defendant committed the above offenses charged and the facts showing probable cause to believe the same are as follows
did strike the victim once in the face because she continued to bite him

Both [REDACTED] and the defendant did not desire prosecution Both declined Sunrise FR

Based on the statement made by the victim, the injury sustained, and the defendant's admission, the defendant was deemed the primary aggressor I placed the defendant under arrest for domestic battery

The defendant was transported to Florida Medical Center for clearance and subsequently to BSO Main Jail for processing

I swear the above statement is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and belief
