Initial Waiting Room/Disconnections.

The Zoom™ Hearing Docket will be configured to allow early entrants to be placed into a “Waiting Room” until the case is called. When entering the Waiting Room, each entrant MUST use the case number and full real name of the party testifying (e.g., “20-CF-012345 John Doe), do not use nicknames or the device’s default name setting. The Court will begin calling cases at the scheduled time. However, wait times may be lengthy due to technological issues. If a Zoom™ Hearing participant becomes disconnected at any time, the participant will need to reconnect/call back in. All entrants will be muted until their case is called. When your case is called, please un-mute and state your appearance.

Zoom™ Videoconferencing Tips. Please review the following tips in preparing for your videoconference hearing:

- Prepare for your virtual hearing. Download the video application before your scheduled hearing. Test your speaker, microphone, and camera before the hearing. Video call software websites often provide a test link to try your equipment before the actual event.
- Dress appropriately, like you would if actually going to the courthouse.
- Limit distractions and find a quiet place to participate in the hearing.
- Keep your electronic device(s) on mute unless speaking to reduce feedback and limit background noise.
- Email the court in advance if you want to present evidence. If you have documents or witnesses you want available for your hearing, check the judge’s website (www.fljud13.org) or call the court for more information.
- Ensure others using your Wi-Fi network minimize their usage during your hearing so you have the best possible connection.

Don’t:

- Don’t ignore the virtual hearing. If you cannot make the hearing or have a conflict, notify the court and your attorney.
- Don’t talk over others. Wait to speak until asked to by the judge.
- Don’t do other things while on the call. Just like in an actual courtroom, you must pay attention to make sure you don’t miss something important that is said or something the judge asks you to do.
