PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and resonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

☒ committed the below acts in my presence.

☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 14 day of October, 2022 at 00:40 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On 10/14/2022 at approximately 0040 hours, this Officer arrived in the area of PGA Blvd and Fairway Dr, PBG, FL, to assist Ofc Hennessy 409 on a traffic stop. Body worn camera and in car video were used.

Ofc Hennessy said he observed the vehicle a Genisis utility (23ASCX/FL) failing to maintain a single lane east of Central Blvd and PGA Blvd while traveling west bound. Ofc Hennessy further stated, the vehicle then stopped well beyond the stop bar at that intersection. Ofc Hennessy said he activated overhead red and blue lights just west of the intersection, to which the vehicle continued west bound at approximately 30 MPH in a posted 45 MPH zone, until finally coming to a stop at the location. This Officer made contact with the driver, identified via Florida Driver License photo, Scott Bond (OF) while he was seated in the driver seat of the vehicle. At the time of contact, the vehicle was turned off and Ofc Hennessy had the keys.

Bond had a flushed red face, glassy watery eyes, thick slurred speech and the overpowering obvious odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from his breath at conversational distance. When asked where he was coming from, Bond had difficulty recalling, then said he had dinner La Masseria. When asked how much he had to drink, Bond had difficulty stating "two glasses of wine".

Based on this Officer`s observations, Bond was asked to exit the vehicle to participate in Standardized Field Sobriety Exercises, to which he complied. Bond had difficulty standing on his own, he stumbled, walked with an unsteady gait and placed his left hand upon his vehicle to assist with walking. Bond mentioned a medical condition which would affect the exercises, thus seated exercises were performed.

The first exercise conducted, was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus. The stimulus used, was a Streamlight Stylus with an illuminated red light. Bond had lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes. This Officer was unable to complete the exercise, because Bond would not follow instructions. Bond moved his head and would look at this Officer rather than the red light. This Officer gave Bond multiple opportunities to do this exercise, to which he was unable to do. Bond said to this Officer "baby, baby, baby.... I`m watching the light now". This Officer determined Bond was too impaired to properly follow instructions, thus the exercise was ended early.

The second exercise conducted, was the Finger to Nose. Bond had difficulty getting into position for the exercise. Bond had great difficulty following simple instructions. Bond also closed his eyes and tilted his head during instructions. Bond also started the exercise prior to being told to do so. During instructions Bond said "baby I got it". Bond claimed to understand instructions. When told to begin, Bond did not tilt his head nor close his eyes. Bond then touched his nose with his right hand then left hand, without being instructed. This Officer then attempted to restart the exercise, with Bond again claiming to understand instructions. When told to begin, Bond again did not tilt his head nor close his eyes, he again touched his nose with his right hand. On the first command of Left, Bond raised his right hand, then opened his eyes and tilted his head forward. Bond touched the left side of his nose with his left index finger. Bond then used the middle pad of his right index finger to touch below the tip of his nose, without being instructed to raise that hand. Bond then opened his eyes again and looked at this Officer. This Officer then gave the command of Right, to which Bond touched the tip of his nose with his right index finger. Bond then immediately touched his nose with his left hand, without being instructed to do so. Bond opened his eyes, looked at this Officer and folded his hands in his lap. This Officer provided further instruction to Bond to which he said "baby, baby, baby, baby" and sighed audibly. Bond then closed his eyes and touched his right index finger to his nose, then left index finger and opened his eyes once again. It was at this time, this Officer determined Bond was too impaired to participate in this exercise nor any other exercise involving movement.

The third exercise conducted, was the Modified Rhomberg Balance. Bond tilted his head and closed his eyes during instructions, three times. Bond estimated the passage of 30 seconds in approximately 24 seconds.

The final exercise conducted, was the Rhomberg Alphabet. During the instructions, Bond said "you guys are really nice guys". While giving Bond instructions, Bond said "Baby I got it, Baby I got it". When told to begin, Bond recited the alphabet A through H, then Y. Bond did this same thing a second time, then opened his eyes and said "wow that`s amazing I haven`t done that ever... I apologize". Bond then attempted a third time, to which he recited the alphabet as "A,B,C,D... I can`t do it, I`m sorry".

Based on this Officer`s observations, Bond was placed under arrest at 0053 hours. Upon arrival at the PBSO BAT, Bond exhibited rapid mood swings in the Sally Port and demanded
