NARR

On Thursday, November 17, 2022, at approximately 1141 hours, while working in a full uniformed capacity as a West Palm Beach Police Patrol Officer, I was dispatched to 2089 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd (Tijuana Flats) in reference to a domestic battery. Dispatch advised the boyfriend tried to strangle her.

NARRATIVE

On arrival, I spoke to the victim, [redacted] who advised of the following: [redacted] and [redacted] Shawn Franklin (WM 28 years old) had [redacted] They were [redacted] advised she currently resides in Orlando, however, came down to visit Franklin.

While on Palm Beach Lakes Blvd, [redacted] and Franklin were in a verbal altercation about an incident that occurred a few days prior. Franklin was upset because [redacted] brought a friend over and the friend stole money from Franklin. Franklin blamed [redacted] for bringing the friend over. The argument became heated, and [redacted] asked Franklin to drop her off anywhere and that she no longer wanted to be in the car.

When they reached the area of 2089 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd (Tijuana Flats Restaurant) the car slowed down. [redacted] took this opportunity to jump out of the car. Franklin grabbed [redacted] by the hair and pulled her back inside of the car. Franklin then grabbed her by the neck to keep her from getting out of the car. [redacted] was able to fight him off and ran out of the car. [redacted] immediately flagged down a bystander and called the police. [redacted] provided Franklin`s name, car tag (FL Tag# QXIJ79) and model (Infiniti). I ran the tag on my computer, and it came back to black Infiniti, registered to Shawn Jonathan Franklin (WM 10/20/1994). I showed [redacted] a DAVID photo of the subject, and she confirmed his identity.

I observed [redacted] distraught with fear, crying and with visible starches. Medics arrived on scene and transported [redacted] to Good Samaritan hospital to get checked out. [redacted] had swelling to the back of her head where her hair was pulled. [redacted] had visible scratches on her left shoulder area, and a red mark on her neck. These were photographed and uploaded onto evidence.com.

I responded to the Hospital to get a sworn statement from [redacted]. [redacted] provided a sworn statement which was recorded on my body worn camera. She repeated everything she initially told me when I arrived on scene.

[redacted] advised Franklin currently works a barber shop inside of the building 2161 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd on the second floor. I responded to this location and called Franklin via phone to see if he would corporate with the investigation and he refused. Franklin advised he was no longer at work, and he had to contact his lawyer prior to making any statements. Franklin advised he would no longer speak to me and denied being with the victim that morning. Franklin advised he had been at work all morning. Franklin stated the subject was trying to get back at him reference the money incident that occurred a few days ago.

Based on the above, sworn statement and the injuries the victim sustained, there is probable cause to charge Shawn Franklin with BATTERY - DATING VIOLENCE F.S. 784.03(1A1).
