PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT
The undersigned certifies and swears that I have just and reasonable grounds to believe, and do believe that the above named Defendant committed the listed violation(s) of law. The Person taken into custody:
☒ Committed the below acts in my presence. ☐ Confessed to [WITNESS] admitting to the below facts. ☐ Was observed by [WITNESS] who told [WITNESS] that he/she saw the arrested person commit the below acts. ☐ Was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.
On July 26th, 2026 at approximately 02:37, I conducted a traffic stop on a gray 2024 Hyundai Elantra, Florida license plate QBAW58, for speeding. I observed vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed that I visually estimated to be 65mph in a 40 mph zone. I clocked the vehicle traveling northbound on N. Federal Highway south of Gulfstream Blvd in the inside lane and obtained a speed of 67 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone using front radar while I was traveling southbound on N. Federal Highway. I observed there to be light traffic and the Hyundai to be the only vehicle on the roadway for a distance. I performed a U-turn and began to attempt to overtake the vehicle and activated my emergency equipment to initiate the traffic stop. The vehicle pulled over from the inside lane and moved to the outside lane just north of Gulfstream Blvd on N. Federal Highway, Florida 33483. I approached the driver's side of the vehicle and made contact with the occupants of the vehicle and observed there to be 2 passengers and a driver, with the driver later identified as Ashley Baluja by FL DL, date of birth July 5, 2002. I introduced myself to the occupants and I requested the driver's license, registration, and proof of insurance. Baluja provided her driver's license and stated the insurance was on her phone. Upon contact I observed there to be an odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from the interior of the vehicle. Baluja provided the following account when I asked where she was coming from. She stated she went to eat lunch for her friend's birthday and then corrected and stated to eat dinner, then went to eat pizza after. She clarified they had dinner at six o'clock at her friend's dinner, then hung out in Delray, and then had pizza. She stated they were just hanging out for her friend's birthday. Baluja explained her friend had to use the bathroom badly and was about to urinate in her seat, so she was trying to get home quickly to prevent that. She stated she lived right down the street, not even two minutes away. When I informed her I clocked her at 67 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone, she stated she did not know she was going that fast and apologized. She stated her friend lived like a street down and she lived right down the street. I observed Baluja to have watery glassy eyes and mumbled thick speech while speaking to her inside of her vehicle.

Baluja stated the last restaurant they went to was Mama Mia's pizza place, and before that they went to Rosewater. I returned to my patrol vehicle to run her information. I asked Baluja to step out of the vehicle to continue my investigation away from the other occupants.

Baluja initially questioned why she needed to exit the vehicle. I explained I was conducting my investigation and was allowed to ask her to step out of the car. I advised her there was case law that allowed me to take her out of the car and asked her nicely to step out or I would remove her from the vehicle. Baluja eventually exited the vehicle. I asked her to step back away from the roadway for safety reasons.

I asked Baluja if she had anything to drink that night. She stated [REDACTED]. Once Baluja exited the vehicle and was to the rear of her car, I observed an odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from her mouth area and breath. She then stated her friends had been drinking all night. I explained I smelled the odor when she was in the car, which is why I separated her from the vehicle to determine if the odor was coming from the car or from her. Baluja stated [REDACTED].

She stated [REDACTED]. She stated [REDACTED]. She explained she came to pick up her friends, went to the first spot that she did not remember because she was only there for a few minutes, then went to Mama Mia's pizza place where she had pizza.

I advised Baluja I would like her to perform some roadside exercises to make sure she was okay to drive. Baluja refused, stating she did not have to and that she was okay to driver and that she knew her rights. I advised her multiple times that failure to perform the exercises could be used against her in a court of law, and that I would base my decision on whether or not to place her under arrest on what I had observed. Baluja continued to refuse, stating I was not allowed to do that, and she did not have to perform the tests. She stated she worked for a law firm and knew her rights. She stated she knew she was not drunk and I could do whatever I needed to do and she would not take any tests for me because she does not have to. She stated that she knows she's not drunk right now, and I can assume whatever I want to assume and that's okay. She stated her friend's house was down the street, and she was taking her home and she was going to stay there and advised that I follow her there.

I advised Baluja that either she would perform the exercises or I would place her under arrest based on what I had seen so far. Baluja asked what I would place her under arrest for. I explained she could prove to me she was not impaired by performing the roadside exercises. Baluja stated she would do one test and that was it, then stated she knew her rights and I could not do that. Baluja then began to walk away from me back toward her vehicle. I told Baluja to stop, and I attempted to detain her and she continued to resist by pulling away and then complied, stating she was not going anywhere. The occupants of the vehicle then exited the vehicle, and I advised them several times to get back into the car, but they refused to comply. Baluja then stated she would do the test for me several times and I advised her it was too late and the decision to arrest her was made. She continued to resist and attempted to get away from my control. Upon the arrival of another unit, Baluja was placed in handcuffs and later placed in the rear of my marked patrol vehicle.

During the arrest, Baluja's friends exited the vehicle and approached. I instructed them to step back and not interfere. Baluja continued to resist and question why she was being arrested. I advised her I had told her the consequences of refusing the exercises multiple times and that she was under arrest for DUI. Baluja denied this, stating I only told her as she was walking away. I explained I had advised her several times that failure to perform the exercises could be used against her in court and there were consequences for not performing them.

I placed Baluja under arrest for DUI at approximately 02:49 hours, stating I believed she was too impaired to operate a motor vehicle. Baluja continued to deny being impaired and requested to perform the tests. I explained I had given her the opportunity, and she did not take it. A female deputy was requested and arrived on scene to conduct a search of Baluja. The deputy removed jewelry from Baluja and other items. Baluja's friends requested to contact her mother, and I obtained Baluja's phone passcode, 070555, to allow them to retrieve the contact information. The passcode initially did not work when the friends attempted to unlock the phone. Baluja later provided the correct passcode and stated that she never uses the passcode, so she is unsure of it. Baluja's mother's contact was listed under "mom" in her phone. I facilitated the friends obtaining the phone number to make arrangements.

The vehicle was towed by Atlantic Towing & Recovery Inc, located at 89 NW 1st Street, Boca Raton, Florida 33432. The keys were left with the tow driver. Baluja was transported to the jail.

Upon arrival to the Palm Beach County jail, Baluja was escorted to the Breath Alcohol Testing center and a 20minute observation was conducted to ensure she did not take anything by mouth or regurgitate. After the 20 minute observation was completed, Baluja was escorted to the testing room and was requested to submit to test of her breath to determine its alcohol content. Baluja refused. I then Baluja the Implied Consent and she stated that she understood. She was asked again if she would take the breath test and she advised no. This was taken as a refusal to submit to a breath test at approximately 0401 hours. I then advised Baluja of her Constitutional Warnings and she advised that she understood. Baluja declined to answer any questions. I then advised Baluja that she was going to be issued a DUI citation with a court date of which required a signature and that the signature was not an admission of guilt but a promise to appear in court on the date. She advised okay. She then asked if she had to sign the citation and I advised her that if she did not sign the citation there would be an additional charge for refusal to accept and sign summons. She asked what this was accepting and I advised her that it was accepting the court date and it was not an admission of guilt. I asked her if she would sign the citation and she stated that she is not admitting to a DUI. I advised her again that she is not admitting to a DUI but signing and understanding that she has a court date and failure to sign the citation would result in an additional criminal violation. I asked Baluja if she would sign the citation and she asked what happens if she did not sign the citation and if I can explain. I advised her that I had already explained what would happen if she didn't sign the citation and that she would be charged additionally. She stated that she understands. She then stated that she will sign the citation. She then stated that she is going to refuse to sign the citation. She then stated that I didn't not explain to her what it was for. I attempted to explain to her again. I advised her again that she was being charged with DUI and she stated that she is not admitting to DUI. I advised her that she had an opportunity to provide a breath sample to show whether or not she was impaired by alcohol but she refused. She stated that she didn't have to because she didn't. I advised her the operation of a motor vehicle was constitutes consent to any sobriety test required by law. I attempted to explain to Baluja but she continually spoke over me and cut me off not allowing me to explain to her. I then explained to her again that signing the citation was not admission of guilt and it was a promise to show up to court on the date provided. I asked her again if she would sign the citation and she stated yes. I advised her in the event once leaving the room and the citation is written and she changes her mind, she will be charged with the additional misdemeanor for refusal to accept and sign the summons.

Based on the totality of circumstances including the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from her mouth area and breath, watery bloodshot glassy eyes, refusal to exit the vehicle initially, refusal to perform field sobriety tests after being advised of Taylor warnings multiple times, confusing statements upon contact with thick mumbled speech, and her admission [REDACTED] I determined there was probable cause to arrest Baluja for DUI. Baluja was later taken to booking and charged with DUI and refusal to provide breath 1st offense.

I acknowledge this report was generated from a digital recording using Draft One by Axon. I further acknowledge that I have reviewed the report, made any necessary edits, and believe it to be an accurate representation of my recollection of the reported events.
