PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT	☒ Marsy's Law CVI FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b) On August 19, 2025, at approximately 2136 hours, while on a call located at 215 N Haverhill Rd, West Palm Beach, FL 33415, Darya Zilberman approached FTO Snelgrove and advised _____ _____ then made contact with Darya, _____ _____ Deputy Hall made contact with Eugene at the couple's residence located at _____ FL. Eugene stated that he and Darya were involved in a physical altercation regarding the vehicle keys. He advised that while attempting to exit the trailer, Darya threw her cell phone at him, striking him in the head. Eugene had visible bruising on his head and was bleeding from his lip. According to Deputy Hall, Eugene stated that he attempted to get away from Darya, and after she threw the phone and injured his lip, a physical fight happened. He claimed he was defending himself while trying to leave the trailer. I observed a scratch on Darya's arm, which was not consistent with her account of being dragged from the bedroom to the kitchen. It should be noted that Darya's cell phone did not appear to be thrown at the distance she claimed her husband threw it at. According to Deputy Hall, Eugene's injuries were consistent with his version of events. Based on the evidence and statements obtained, it appears that Darya was the primary aggressor in this incident. Based on my investigation, I had probable cause to arrest and charge Darya Zilberman with domestic battery. Darya was handcuffed behind her back; the handcuffs were double-locked and checked for proper fit. She was placed in the rear seat of my patrol car. While in the rear of the patrol vehicle, Darya began complaining of shortness of breath. EMS was contacted and responded to the scene to evaluate her. Darya was removed from the patrol car and placed on an EMS gurney. Her handcuffs were repositioned to the front while she was seated on the gurney. EMS advised they would be transporting Darya to Wellington Regional Medical Center for medical clearance. Due to her being under arrest and restrained, EMS personnel requested that I ride with them during transport. While enroute to Wellington Regional, Darya became combative, first attempting to remove her legs from the EMS restraints. She then began kicking and removing medical monitoring devices. As I attempted to restrain her legs to assist EMS in resecuring her, Darya reached for my Taser. I immediately grabbed her hands and pinned them against the top of the gurney. Darya then attempted to bite me. In response, I struck her in the face and continued to restrain her until EMS personnel could resecure her legs.

Art.1 § 16(b) Upon arrival at Wellington Regional, Darya was admitted to the emergency room. While medical staff attempted to apply monitoring equipment, Darya again became combative. She grabbed a nurse's arm and removed a bracelet from the nurse's wrist. The nurse sustained minor injuries to her wrist, which were photographed for documentation. I have probable cause to arrest Darya Zilberman with one count of battery and one count of battery on a law enforcement officer and one count of battery on hospital personal.
