☒ Marsy's Law CVI FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)
I responded to _____ Unincorporated _____ in reference to a report of a violation of a no-contact order.
Upon arrival, I made contact with the reporting party, identified as Allison Abraham, who stated that her ex-husband, Dayan Abraham, had been repeatedly contacting her in violation of a court-issued no-contact order (Case# DR25-8996SB). The victim explained that she has a No-contact order against her ex-husband, which prohibits him from contacting her in any way except for up to four to five messages per day strictly regarding their 17-year-old son. She stated that the restraining order explicitly forbids contact through email, text, or third parties for any other purpose. The victim reported that her ex-husband had been sending her numerous messages and emails that were unrelated to their son, including messages containing accusations and implied threats.
The victim provided examples of the messages. She stated that on December 7th and 8th, 2025, her ex-husband sent her a series of text messages accusing her of inappropriate behavior, including having sexual relations with other men in their home while their son was present. She stated that he also sent her distorted photographs, which he claimed depicted her engaging in these acts. The victim stated that the photographs were unclear and did not show anything resembling the accusations. She further stated that she was not at home at the time her ex-husband claimed these events occurred.
The victim stated that her ex-husband had his brother take pictures of her house and send them to him. She reported that her ex-husband then forwarded these pictures to her along with accusatory messages. She stated that the pictures were taken from outside the house and did not show anything incriminating. She also reported that her ex-husband had sent similar messages and photographs to their children, who no longer communicate with him due to his behavior. I viewed the images which were very blurry and could not identify what they were.

☒ Marsy's Law CVI FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b) The victim reported that on December 8th, 2025, her ex-husband sent her additional messages and emails. She stated that the messages began in the afternoon and continued intermittently throughout the day, with a significant increase in frequency between 18:00 and 19:00 hours. She stated that the messages included further accusations and threats, as well as instructions for her to check her email. She stated that the emails contained similar content, including distorted photographs and accusatory statements. The victim stated that she has not initiated any contact with her ex-husband and has only responded to messages that pertain to their son, as allowed by the restraining order. She stated that she has not replied to any of the other messages or emails. She also reported that her ex-husband has threatened to call law enforcement to conduct welfare checks at her residence as a form of harassment. She stated that he made such a threat after a previous visit by law enforcement on December 7th, 2025. The victim provided a sworn statement detailing the incidents and the content of the messages. She also agreed to provide screenshots of the messages and emails for evidence. It should be noted that the suspect continued to message the victim while Deputies were still on scene. Based on the victims statement and provided evidence, I find probable cause to charge Dayan Abraham with Violation of Domestic Violence Injunction pursuant to FSS 741.31(4a).
