A D M I N	Date / Time 04/04/2023 01:25	Agency ORI Number FL 0501700		Agency Name JUPITER POLICE DEPARTMENT	Agency Report Number 5 4 23-001412
	N I made contact with a white male, who was later identified as Jon Kocha (W/M 03/06/1968), waiting outside of the above-listed apartment. Kocha stated he was lying on his bed attempting to fall asleep when he was awoken by his girlfriend of two years, Diana Maricle (W/F 02/10/1969). He stated she woke him up in a fit of rage and verbally argued over a girl texting his cell phone. He advised during the verbal argument, he was hit in the head by her hand while he was still lying down. He then told her that he was going to call 911. Once he stated he was going to call the police, he observed her walk to the bathroom that was connected to their bedroom, and she retrieved a cable. After retrieving the cable, she whipped him with the cord on his left rib cage and his left arm, striking him twice. He then called 911, and once he called, she hit him again on his head with her hand. He then separated himself from her and waited downstairs for police arrival. While speaking to him, I observed a small cut on his left forehead, the blood appeared to have dried, and an additionally raised bump on his forehead. I further observed a small contusion on his left rib cage along with a welt on his left arm that appeared to be across his triceps, which appeared consistent with being whipped by a cord. I photographed his visible injuries as evidence for this case. He further advised that he has been residing at apartment 22A with Maricle for two and a half years. This concluded my interview with him. I then spoke to Maricle, and she stated the following: Earlier in the night, she and Kocha had a verbal argument that began inside the living room area of the residence. She asked him to leave the apartment due to being tired of constantly arguing and his drug dependency. After asking him to leave, he became enraged and stated he would not leave willingly, stating this is his apartment. Once the verbal argument continued, he became physical with her striking her face with an open-hand slap. After striking her, he stated, "the marks won't show up for a couple of days" she then retreated to the upstairs bedroom, where he followed her and physically pushed her onto the bed. She then separated herself from him and waited for the police to arrive. I then asked her how long he has been physically living at 825 Center St. Apt. 22A, and she advised he has been living there for over two years, which has been the duration of their relationship. She advised that she never physically put her hands on him or struck him during this incident. While speaking to her, I observed small red blemishes on her face which I photographed for evidence. After speaking to Maricle, I began to speak to Kocha again and asked for consent to enter the residence to look for the cord he was whipped with. He then permitted me and advised that the cord was near the bathroom by their bed. I entered the residence and observed in their bedroom a thin black charging cable on the floor next to the bed that was not plugged into an outlet. The cord appeared to have the same width as the mark on Kocha's arm, consistent with his statement. I collected the cord, which I later placed in the Jupiter Police Evidence Department. Based on my above investigation and physical injury to Kocha, which was consistent with his statement and the finding of the charging cord, I find probable cause to arrest Maricle because Maricle did actually and intentionally touch or strike Kocha against the will of him and/or did intentionally cause bodily harm to him, and he was a family or household member or a person in a dating relationship with Maricle contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1) and 741.283. I placed Maricle in handcuffs behind her back, which were checked for proper spacing and double-locked. I then transported her to the Palm Beach County Jail without incident. I uploaded the photographs that were taken on scene and uploaded them to Evidence.com. My body-worn camera was active and captured the above incident.
