The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law. The Person taken into custody ... ☐ committed the below acts in my presence. ☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person commit the below acts. ☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts. ☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation. On the 5 day of January, 2023 at 02:55 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.) On Wednesday January 4th, 2023 at approximately 2353 hours I was traveling eastbound just west of the intersection of W Indiantown/S Pennock Lane and witnessed a white BMW SUV (bearing PA Tag#KKN9903) traveling westbound make a left on red right in front of me causing me to slam on my brakes. I conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle by activated my overhead emergency lights at the intersection of S Pennock Lane/Summerwood Drive. The vehicle was slow to pull over and stopped on the right shoulder but still in the roadway. I made contact with the driver and sole occupant, Erin Nolan (W/F 09/18/1994). Nolan immediately stated "you don't have to tell me what I did" and admitted to running the red light and turning left on red. When I asked her why she ran the red light, she stated she lived down the street. I immediately detected the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from her breath that intensified as she spoke. Nolan also had slurred speech and delayed responses/reactions to some of questions and very bloodshot-glassy eyes. I asked Nolan if she had anything to drink tonight, to which she denied and said she had nothing at all. Nolan fumbled through her vehicle trying to find her car insurance, driver's license, and car registration, which she was unable to provide. Based on the aforementioned events I asked Nolan to exit the vehicle. I had Nolan walk to the front of her car and explained why I had asked her to step out of her vehicle and once again asked her if she had anything to drink tonight. Nolan tried to avoid the question, however, finally admitted to having 2 drinks early in the day at her parents' house and then said she goes to AA meetings. Based on the aforementioned events, I requested she participate in Standardized Field Sobriety Exercises to which she stated she wanted a family member or friend present and was advised that she was not able anyone there and had to make the decision on her own. Nolan was also advised that if she refused to complete the exercises I have requested of her that it can be used against her in a court of law and I would have to make an arrest decision based on what I have seen so far. After a few minutes of having to re-explain things to Nolan, she agreed to participate. The first task I began with the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus task. I instructed Nolan to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side. I demonstrated to Nolan that she would be following my stimulus (red light) with her eyes and her eyes only and to keep her head still at all times. Curtis stated she understood the instructions and was ready for me to continue. Nolars eyes had no resting nystagmus in either eye and both eyes tracked together equally. I observed lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes, distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both eyes, and onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in both eyes. She did not have vertical Nystagmus in either eye. Nolan could not keep focused on the stimulus, was noticeably swaying back and forth, and did not keep her head still. Nolan also stated that she was "kind of killing it" in the middle the task. The second task was the Walk & Turn. I instructed/demonstrated Nolan to stand on the straight white road-line with her left foot on the line with her right foot touching her left foot (heel to toe) with her arms at her side. I instructed/demonstrated Nolan that this was the starting position, to which she was unable to maintain and continued to sway back and forth and falling out of the positon. I instructed/demonstrated Nolan to take nine heel to toe steps down the line and take a series of small steps then return down the line heel to toe nine steps. While walking down the line, I told her to make sure to count out loud, look at her feet at all times, do not stop walking until she is done, and not to use her arms for balance. Nolan interrupted me throughout my instructions and tried to start before she was instructed to do so. Nolan missed heel-to-toe on step 2, 3, and 5, did not count out loud and made an improper turn. Nolan asked "9?" after making the improper turn and stepped off the line on step 3 & 4 and only made 8 steps on the way back, also without counting out loud as instructed. The third task was the One Leg Stand. I instructed Nolan to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side, to which she struggled to keep her heels and toes touching without swaying around. I instructed/demonstrated to Nolan that she would be raising the leg of her choice approximately 6 inches off the ground while keep her foot parallel to the ground and counting out loud until I told her to stop. After demonstrating she stated she understood. Nolan did not raise her foot approximately 6 inches off the ground or keep her foot parallel to the ground. She also used her arms for balance and did not count out loud as instructed to do so. The fourth task was the finger to nose. I instructed Nolan to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side with her pointer fingers pointed outward. I instructed/demonstrated Nolan that I would be calling left (L) or right(R), when I do, with her head tilted back and eyes closed, she would take the tip of the finger I called and touch it to the tip of her nose and was shown the difference

I called "L" and Nolan said "don't do this to me" and started with her right then lifted her left finger and placed it underneath her nose. I called "R" and she placed the pad of her finger to the bottom of her nose. I called "L" and she placed the pad of her finger to the bottom of her nose. I called "R" and she placed the side of her finger on her top lip. I called "R" and she placed the pad of her finger to the middle of her nose. I finally called "L" and she again placed the pad of her finger to the middle of her nose. The fifth and final task was the Romberg Alphabet. I instructed Nolan to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side. She was instructed to tilt her head back and close her eyes while reciting the alphabet in a non-rhythmical manner. During this task, Nolan did not rhyme the alphabet, however, was noticeably swaying back and forth, kept her eyes open, and stopped on "L" and "S" for 3-4 seconds. Based on my investigation, observations, and totality of circumstances, I had probable cause to believe that Erin Nolan was in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, chemical, or controlled substance, to the point where her normal faculties were impaired, contrary to F.S 316.193. She was placed into handcuffs at 0018 hours which were double-locked and checked for proper spacing per department policy. I then transported Nolan to the Palm Beach County Breath Alcohol Testing center, arriving at 0049 hours. I placed Nolan under a 20 minute observation period, during which she neither consumed nor regurgitated anything. We then went on video with BAT technician Ragin #16877. I requested that Nolan provide a breath sample. She asked what would happen if she did not provide a breath sample and was read implied consent from a pre-printed template. Nolan stated she understood and would give a breath sample. She subsequently provided two breath samples of .241 and .226. I placed Nolan in holding while all necessary paperwork was completed and subsequently booked her into the Palm Beach County Jail. She was given a criminal court date of 02/08/2023, 0830 hours. Nolan's vehicle was towed from the scene by East Coast Towing. The above incident was captured on BWC. This narrative is a summary of the events and not purported to be verbatim.
