heard repeatedly telling the defendant to get off of her, let her go, and leave her alone. The defendant continued trying to take control of the victims cell phone and continued enroaching on her personal space. The victim then raised her leg and placed it between her and the defendant to create distance between the two, to which the defendant grabbed the victim by her ankle, and pushed it away.

The defendant and the victim are currently married with two children in common and living in above residence as a family.

The defendant was taken into custody and charged with 784 03-1a1(hg) and transported to BSO main jail without further incident.
