As I attempted to begin my DUI investigation, Washington began to record on her cellphone. I asked Washington to place her belongings on the hood of my patrol vehicle in which she did not comply. I attempted to take the cellphone from Washington, while doing so Washington raised her right hand and aggressively grabbed me by my left shoulder and neck area to shove me. After a brief struggle, Washington was taken into custody without further incident. Washington was placed into handcuffs, which were checked for proper fit and double locked. Due to Washington's combative actions and for Washington's and deputies on scene's safety, Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks were not administered. Washington was later transported to the Palm Beach County Breath Alcohol Testing Center (BAT) for further evaluation. While at the BAT, Washington refused to submit to a lawful test of her breath. She was read implied consent in which she continued to refuse. She was read Miranda warnings from a prepared text in which she advised she understood. During questioning, Washington advised she was coming from an unknown restaurant in the City of Boca Raton (Mizner Park) where she was hanging out with her daughter. She admitted to having one (1) glass of wine prior to going to the restaurant. Based on my above observations and investigation, Washington was placed under arrest for Driving Under The Influence (DUI), DUI Crash (Injury/Property Damage) and Battery on a Law Enforcement Officer. Washington was later medically cleared and transported to the Palm Beach County Jail for booking.
