☒ Marsy's Law CVI FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)
On August 29, 2024 at approximately 1911 hours I responded to [REDACTED] in unincorporated Palm Beach county in reference to a simple battery domestic related incident.
Upon arrival I met with the complainant/victim who identified himself by his FL DL as Jose Betances. Betances provided me with a statement on body worn camera attesting to the following: While at the above mentioned address, Betances got into a physical altercation with his girlfriend; Feve Flores (who he also has a child in common with). Betances advised that the situation started yesterday August 28, 2024 when Flores was being rude and disrespectful towards him. Betances further advised that he made an appointment for Flores at the DMV but he did not go with her because of her actions the day prior. Betances advised that he was at their home sitting on the couch while eating food that he cooked for dinner, when Flores came in from the DMV upset. Betances stated that Flores knocked the plate of food out of his hands causing it to spill all over him and the floor. Flores then started arguing with him about not going to the DMV with her. Flores then starts hitting Betances on the top of the head and ruffling his hair around. Betances then grabs Flores by the arms to prevent her from hitting him any further and escorts her outside and tells her she needs to leave and calm down. Flores then comes back to the door and slaps Betances on the right side of his face and then leaves the area.
Next, in my investigation I made contact with Flores who had returned back to the home. Flores advised that she got into an argument with Betances because he did not come to the DMV with her. Flores stated that when she came home after the DMV she saw that Betances was sitting on the couch doing nothing even though he was not answering her phone calls. Flores advised that she became upset and knocked the plate of food that Betances out of his hands. Flores further stated that Betances pushed her and she pushed him back. Betances then grabbed her by the wrist and Flores advised that she later slapped Betances in the face.
Due to the above stated facts Feve Flores was found to be the primary aggressor and probable cause exists to charge Feve Flores with Simple Battery (domestic) pursuant to FSS 784.03(1a1).
