☒ Marsy's Law CVI FL Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On December 23, 2025, at approximately 16:48 hours, I responded to a report of vandalism at the Costco located at 11001 Southern Boulevard, Royal Palm Beach, Florida, 33411.

Upon arrival, I made contact with the victims Wainright Cox and Lynette Cox. Mr. Cox stated that his vehicle, a black Mazda bearing FL tag [REDACTED] had been vandalized in the parking lot. He alleged that a woman following a dispute over a parking spot caused the damage.

Mr. Cox provided the following account: He had parked his vehicle in a spot that had just been vacated. Shortly after, a woman approached him and expressed frustration, claiming she had been waiting for the spot. Mr. Cox described the female as a white small-framed woman wearing a colorful top, possibly reddish or pinkish in color. Mr. Cox stated that he did not argue with her and walked away to the front of Costco to meet with his wife. Mr. Cox then said while standing outside the front of Costco with his wife, the same female approached him now with a male appearing to be her husband in the front of Costco and started a verbal argument with him over the parking spot. His wife Lynette then got involved and separating him from the other couple.

Mr. Cox's wife, Lynette Cox, also provided a sworn statement. She confirmed that she was present during the incident and corroborated her husband's account of the parking dispute. Mrs. Cox stated she was sitting down in the front of the Costco when the male and female approached her husband. She continued that female's husband started a verbal argument with her husband over the parking spot. When Mr. Cox returned his vehicle, he noticed that there was one long scratch mark from the hood of his vehicle to the rear of the vehicle on the driver side.

I inspected the black Mazda and observed a scratch on the vehicle that appeared consistent with being made by a key or similar object. The scratch was a single line that started from the hood of the vehicle down the driver side past the passenger door. Mrs. Cox stated that they were willing to prosecute for the damages to their vehicle. On 01/11/2026 at 10:00 am, Mr. Cox provided a screenshot from his insurances portal page showing the total damage. The damage estimate stated total cost was $2,582.09.

On 12/26/2025 at approximately 10:30 Am, I met with Jason Bell (Costco Manager) who provided me with the membership information for the female who is suspected of keying the victim's vehicle. While reviewing the video surveillance, I observed a red Tesla waiting for a parking spot at approximately 3:14 pm. At 3:15pm, the victim's vehicle came down the parking aisle in front of the parking spot. As the vehicle that was currently parked in the spot backed out and left, both the victim's vehicle and the Red Tesla attempted to park into the spot almost causing a crash. At 3:16 pm, the victim's vehicle parked in the spot and the Passenger door of the Red Tesla opened and a white female with blonde hair wearing what appeared to be a pink shirt exited the vehicle and confronted Mr. Cox.

At 3:17 pm, Mr. Cox walks away from the vehicle, the female walks to the passenger side for a few seconds and then walks back to the driver side of the victim's vehicle. She had her bag in her left hand and she turns her right shoulder into the vehicle, which is consistent movement with keying the vehicle. It should also be noted that where she makes the movement at the beginning of the vehicle is consistent with the damage located at front quarter panel to the rear quarter panel. The female is then seen walking towards the front of Costco.

Video surveillance at the front entrance of Costco shows the victim and his wife outside of the entrance waiting for someone. At 3:18 pm, the suspected female grabs a Costco cart and waits in front of the entrance. At 3:19 pm, the female then points directly at the victim and a male wearing a black shirt and blue jeans enters the video and walks directly towards the victim. The male and female engage in another verbal argument causing the victim's wife that was sitting down to get up and move her husband away from them. The argument even caused a Costco employee to intervene and both parties separated, with the female and the male entering the store. At 3:20 pm, the female and male enter the Costco through the front entrance.

At 3:32 pm, video surveillance shows the female and the male walk up to the self-checkout and the female scan her membership card. Jason Bell (Costco Manager) provided the membership information, which showed it belonged to Gladys Garcia. At 3:34 pm, Gladys and the male are then seen exiting the store on video surveillance. The membership information provided an address for Gladys as 8085 Laborie Lane, Wellington FL 33414. Utilizing DAVID, I searched the address provided and found a Gladys Garcia. Utilizing DAVID, Gladys's DL Photo closely resembles the female in the video surveillance. Gladys also has a red Tesla registered to her, FL license plate ELLA0.

On 01/14/2026, Mrs. Garcia arrived at the District 9 substation for non-custodial interview. It should be noted that Gladys arrived at the district driving a Red Tesla. Post Miranda, Mrs. Garcia stated several times that she did not recall the incident I was referring to, I showed her two photos of the incident, one of them having the Red Tesla in it. She stated that she drives a Red a Tesla and that is a red Tesla, however she would not identify the Tesla as hers. I showed her a second photo, this time with the female and the victim arguing at the parking spot. Mrs. Garcia again stated she did not recall this incident and would not identify the female as herself. I explained her to the investigation would continue and she stated, "do what you have to do". I concluded my interview and Mrs. Garcia left.

On 01/15/2026, Detective (Det.) J. Coppola ID# 36858 and I met with the residents who live at 8075 Laborie Lane (right next to door the Gladys's residence). The residence identified themselves as John Riley and Stefanie Riley. Det. Coppola advised them of the incident we were investigating and asked if they would attempt to identify the male and female in the photo. It should be noted that the photos were still shots taken from the video surveillance of the male and female exiting the Costco. John completed a sworn statement and identified the female as his next door neighbor. John recognized the male standing next to her in the photo as "Alex", it should be noted that a property appraiser check on 8085 Laborie Lane shows Alex Garcia and Gladys Garcia. John continued that they have been living in the neighborhood for about 10 years and Alex and Gladys moved in about 6 years ago. He stated that they have had at least 10 or more interactions within that period.

Based on the totality of my investigation, evidence presented to me, positive identification of Gladys Garcia, I find probable cause to arrest and charge Gladys Garcia with the following:

Criminal Mischief- by knowingly and willfully damaging the victims vehicle causing $2,582.09, Per FSS 806.13(1)(b)(3).
