Huiza stated the following: She had been calling Jonathan for several hours in an attempt to speak with her kids, who were with Jonathan at this time. Jonathan would not answer the phone to allow her to speak to them. Huiza said that her and Jonathan are the parents of both children, but do not have a custody agreement or court order at this time. Huiza told Jonathan that she was going to go to his house because she wanted to see the children, but Jonathan told her not to come. She decided to show up to the house, uninvited, and proceeded to knock on the door in an attempt to speak with her children. After Jonathan opened the front door Jonathan was yelling at her to leave the house, but she said she would not leave before taking her children with her. After Jonathan threw her phone outside, she went to go get it and he closed the door before she could come back in. Huiza repeatedly stated that the incident was not physical at any point, and she just wanted to see her children. I then met with Jonathan Bitton who advised that his ex-fiancé showed up to his house uninvited and started knocking on the door because she wanted to see their children. When Jonathan let her in the house, she attempted to get their children to leave the house with her. Jonathan was telling Huiza to leave the house, and during this time he said that she attacked him. Jonathan said that when Huiza attacked him this caused a scratch on the front of his neck and a scratch on his left wrist. Bitton said he did not hit her back during this altercation, and he was able to get her to leave the house by throwing her phone outside. Next, Officer Vick met with their daughter, Maia Bitton who was present during the
