PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT
The undersigned certifies and swears that I have just and reasonable grounds to believe, and do believe that the above named Defendant committed the listed violation(s) of law. The Person taken into custody:  ☐ Committed the below acts in my presence. ☐ Confessed to [WITNESS] admitting to the below facts. ☐ Was observed by [WITNESS] who told [WITNESS] that he/she saw the arrested person commit the below acts. ☒ Was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.  On May 8th, 2026 at approximately 02:06 hours, I responded to a report of a vehicle stopped in the roadway with a possibly impaired driver, in the area of 6th Av S and S East Coast Street, in the city of Lake Worth Beach, Palm Beach County. I arrived on scene at approximately 0218 hours. Upon arrival, I observed a vehicle sitting in the middle of the road with two blown-out tires in the middle of the west bound travel lanes. Sgt. [REDACTED] was already on scene standing by with the driver. The officer informed me he had been driving when he saw the car sitting in the middle of the road with blown-out tires. He stated he did not smell anything initially, but when he walked up to the driver, she said [REDACTED]" (See Supplemental PC for further). I approached the vehicle and observed the driver seated inside. The driver and defendant, Hannah Easter as identified by her Florida Driver's license, had slow lethargic movements and spoke in thick slurred speech. The defendant had watery blood shot eyes. I asked the driver to step out of the vehicle. She asked if she could put her shoes on and made a comment about a sobriety test before I had mentioned any testing. [REDACTED]. When I asked if she knew her current location, Easter stated she did not know where she was. Easter denied having any medical conditions, stating she was not diabetic, epileptic, or had any seizure disorders. [REDACTED] able to perform basic movements. When asked if anything medical would cause her to sway, Easter responded "no, just stupidity, just me." The defendant was swaying in circular motion while standing with her feet shoulder width apart and stumbled by standing still.

I asked Easter about the condition of her vehicle's tires. She acknowledged having no explanation for why her vehicle only had two tires remaining when it started with four. Easter initially stated she had nothing to drink, then corrected herself saying she had [REDACTED]. She explained she ran the whole company event that evening and walked away without drinking anything more. Easter stated she was tired and had been up since five in the morning planning a party for 400 people.

I observed Easter displayed bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, emotional behavior, and was swaying. When I asked if anything besides drinking would cause these symptoms, Easter stated she was "really fucking sad and disgusted by all of this." I explained that emotional distress would not account for all the physical symptoms I observed. Based on my observations, I informed Easter I had concerns she was impaired for the purposes of driving a vehicle and was in actual physical control of the vehicle.

I requested Easter complete standardized field sobriety tasks to determine impairment. I explained the tasks involve walking, balancing, and following instructions. Easter asked what would happen if she did not complete the tasks. I advised her that if she refused, I would base my determination on the evidence observed to that point, and any refusal could be used against her in criminal proceedings. Easter asked if she would be arrested tonight. I confirmed that if she were to be arrested for this offense, it would be tonight, but I was requesting the tasks for additional evidence.

Easter became increasingly emotional, stating she had been working for 36 hours and was tired. She made statements that were difficult to understand due to her emotional state and slurred speech. I asked Easter again if she would complete the field sobriety tasks. Easter stated "No."

At this time I found probable cause that the defendant was impaired and in actual physical control in violation of Florida State Statute 316.193(1A) Driving Under the influence.

The defendant was transported to a Palm Beach County Jail Breath Alcohol Testing Center. After a 20 minute observation period the defendant was requested to provide a lawful sample of her breath to which she refused. I read the defendant implied consent from a pre printed form which was also explained to her. I again requested that she provide a lawful sample of her breath and she again refused.

At this time I found probable cause to charge the defendant with refusing to provide a lawful sample of her

The vehicle had extensive damage to the rear, driver's side and front. Both driver's side tires were gone and only the rims remained. The vehicle was still on occupied by a white female identified as Hannah Easter W/F (02/17/1981). Ms. Easter had bloodshot eyes and was speaking slowly when I spoke to her. Ms. Easter advised that she was not going to be okay and was slurring her words as she spoke. Based on the damage to the vehicle, along with above indicators of possible impairment, I requested a DUI Investigator respond to the scene. DUI Investigator Ward responded and assumed the investigation.
