Defendant's Name MEAD, HEATHER MICHELLE Agency Case Number: wgpd24off000921

NARRATIVE: The undersigned has probable cause to believe the above-named defendant on the 14 of March 2024 at 21:18 at 12381 W COLONIAL DR (Zone: c05) in Orange County did

On 3/14/2024 at approximately 2113 hours, I, Officer McMorrow, responded to 12381 W Colonial Drive in response to a disturbance. Dispatch advised a white male, Lewis Stone (VICTIM W/M 4/14/1993) and a white female Heather Mead (SUSPECT W/F 1/22/1988) were arguing at the gas pumps. Heather was banging on the glass wearing a white or pink dress with no shoes. Lewis was still in the white sedan not letting Heather in and Heather began banging on the window. Lewis stepped out of the vehicle and a physical fight ensued. Officer's went on scene shortly after.

Upon my arrival I immediately noticed the white Chevy Sedan bearing FL Tag: Z986JU and a white female wearing a white dress. Heather, identified by word of mouth, stated she was in an argument with her boyfriend. At this point one of my assisting officer's stayed with Heather as I went to locate Lewis. Lewis was inside, "hiding by the bathroom" to get away from Heather. Lewis was identified by his Florida driver's license and started becoming uncooperative with officers. Lewis stated that he was in the car driving Heather home, Lewis stated that Heather became so aggressive that he was forced to pull over. Lewis was uncooperative because he did not want Heather to get in trouble as she had never been arrested before. Lewis informed me that he was struck but did not want to specify anything else. I spoke with Lewis more and he stated that he has been dating Heather for approximately 1 year. Lewis stated he was never struck during this encounter. Lewis declined to complete a witness statement. Officer Julssaint took photographs of Lewis, Lewis had a noticeable injury on his face but he stated it was preexisting. Lewis also declined medical treatment and completed a prosecution declination form. Lewis received date violence victims rights brochure paperwork from assisting officers.

There was an independent witness who observed the event, a store clerk at the 7ELEVEN. Nicole Palmeter (WITNESS W/F 9/21/1993) identified by a Florida driver's license, completed a sworn written statement regarding the incident. Nicole stated that a customer came in and said "You are missing a show" and Nicole's attention was drawn to the white Chevy. Heather at this point was in a verbal argument with Lewis while he was inside of the vehicle. Heather began pulling on the door handle and started kicking the door. Heather then stuck her fingers in the window and started punching the window in an attempt to break it. Lewis moved the vehicle to a new gas pump on the east side of the pumps. Lewis got out of the vehicle and Heather followed him to the new spot. Heather then kicked him approximately 2 times, smacked him in the face approximately one time, and Lewis then came into the store to find help where I found him. There is video involving this incident, however it could not be collected due to the manager not being available during the night time.

I then spoke with Heather. Heather informed me that nothing happened originally and was very uncooperative. Heather appeared intoxicated and had a strong odor of alcohol emitting from her breath. Heather said that she had 2 Heinekens and a single shot. Heather began crying through the entire incident. I informed Heather that there was multiple witnesses and video footage of the incident. Heather originally stated that there was no physical contact. I questioned Heather further she stated she did not kick him or punch him. However, Heather did admit to slapping him. Heather stated she was never struck during this encounter. Heather stated that they have been dating for approximately a year and a half. Lewis and Heather do not live together as Lewis currently has a wife and lives with her. Due to the romantic nature of the relationship, this classifies it as domestic violence. Heather was then placed in handcuffs which were double locked and checked for tightness. A female officer conducted a search of Heather resulting in negative contraband. I took photos of Heather to document that she had no injuries.

Heather was transported to BRC without incident. My body worn camera recorded this incident. However, my body worn camera was not reviewed prior to writing this report.
