PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

☒ Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On September 30, 2023, at approximately 1545 hours. I responded to [redacted] about a Domestic Battery.

Upon arrival at the scene, I spoke with [redacted] who stated that her [redacted] Howard Jendlin came to the residence and verbally argued over the money he owed her. [redacted] stated she blacked out, choked her, and punched her on the arm. [redacted] refused services from EMS. [redacted] said that Jendlin left the residence and called the police. Jendlin said there were many old bruises on her body. [redacted] had pictures of previous incidents and other domestic incidents to show units. [redacted] advised that all those cases were handled and didn't go how she wanted them to. [redacted] told responding units she had Shingles and other medical disabling conditions. Jendlin had left the home before law enforcement arrived on the scene. [redacted] initially stated she allowed Jendlin to enter the residence but was scared for her safety.

It should be noted after deputies asked [redacted] if she was in fear of safety, why did she open the door? [redacted] then changed her statement. [redacted] said Jendlin came through the door unannounced because the door was unlocked. [redacted] said Jendlin did not have permission inside the residence.

After that, I spoke with Jendlin Howard over the phone, who said he came to clean up and grocery shopping. Abigail said she needed more money to help with the bills. He gave her over $3,000, but she wanted more money. [redacted] stated, "If he didn't give her money, she would call the police." [redacted] became angry and came towards him. He backed away from around the table because getting to him was more challenging for her. After that, he left the house. Howard said [redacted] has bruises from when she was arrested a while ago, many of which are permanent marks. Jendlin said [redacted] currently has Shingles on her skin. [redacted] advised that he left home to prevent any further verbal altercation and took pictures of his hands and palms of the day because she has a track record of lying and calling the police. [redacted] advised that the choking incident occurred two years ago when she lied to him, which has been documented several times. Jendlin reported during that time, [redacted] went to jail. Jendlin advised the only contact he had with her was helping Jendlin get dressed. [redacted] advised he was kicked out of his apartment and is currently homeless. Jendlin reported it's not right for him to go to jail for a lie. Jendlin prefers not to meet up in person and wants to wait until the case is filed for review.

Due to the above-mentioned facts, I Find Probable Cause Does Exist to Arrest Jendlin Howard with the Violation of Florida State Statute 784.03(1)(A)(1) Domestic Battery. [redacted] stated that Howard punched her in the arm, and there was a bruise on the left arm. It is unknown if the bruises are something fresh or from the past. [redacted] has several marks and bruises all over the body, and she is currently dealing with a medical condition on the skin. [redacted] said that Jendlin choked her, and there were no visual strangulation marks around her neck. [redacted] lives at the residence alone, and Jendlin does not live there. [redacted] advised he doesn't have a key to get inside. [redacted] is inconsistent with [redacted]'s statement; initially, she stated that she opened the door for Jendlin and left him inside the residence. [redacted] changed her statement and said [redacted] came in without permission. Jendlin provided text messages to my email showing that [redacted] was invited to the home and that she willingly left the door unlocked for him to access the residence. Jendlin advised they haven't had a relationship for several years, and he only came over to help. [redacted] completed a sworn statement with a body-worn camera. A PBSO Victim Rights Brief and Case Information Form were at this time. [redacted] will be provided with those forms at a later date and time. Photos were taken and uploaded as evidence. Jendlin took pictures of his hand and sent the text messages to my email, and they were submitted to the photo lab via email. I didn't observe battle marks or bruises on his hand in the pictures. There is no additional information to provide at this time.

This case will be filed with the State Attorney's Office.
