NARR

On January 18, 2023 at approximately 2044 hours, I responded to 125 Marlberry Cir, Jupiter FL, in reference to a possible violation of a domestic violence related order of no contact. The reporting party/victim, identified as Kathleen Crist (W/F, DOB: 06/12/1977) stated her husband was arrested on 01/17/2023 for domestic violence- simple battery, and was issued an order of no contact at first appearance this morning - JPD case number 23-000241. Kathleen advised that she received a phone call from her husband, identified as Jason Crist (W/M, DOB: 02/06/1962), who stated his intention was to go to the residence tonight because he had nowhere else to go. Kathleen stated she was not home at the time and feared Jason may be present at the residence. Sergeant Borrows, Corporal Marinucci and I responded to the residence and cleared the interior with Kathleen`s permission, which checked clear for Jason being there at that time.

Kathleen met with me at her residence where she noticed that Jason`s white Mercedes Benz, FL AJ27EH, was no longer parked in the front driveway. Kathleen advised that when she left at approximately 1900 hours today to take her sons to basketball practice, the Mercedes was parked in the driveway. Kathleen provided me with the following sworn statement, not verbatim, on BWC.

Kathleen stated when she left her residence today at approximately 1907 hours, she received a phone call from Jason in which she recorded. Kathleen played the phone conversation between her and Jason, in which Jason advised he was going to take a cab from Palm Beach County Jail to the residence and sleep in his own bed tonight. Kathleen advised Jason that him coming to the residence would be a violation of the no contact order. Kathleen advised per the no contact order, he was allowed to call her via phone but was not allowed at the residence unless he was with a uniformed Police officer. While speaking to Kathleen, one of her sons used the downstairs bathroom and advised that Jason must have taken a shower in the bathroom while they were gone because the shower was wet. Kathleen`s son also advised that Jason`s shampoo and towel was also missing from the bathroom. Kathleen stated the bathroom her son used is the bathroom Jason normally uses and is connected to the bedroom he normally sleeps in. Kathleen advised that she and Jason do not sleep in the same bedrooms anymore. Kathleen checked Jason`s bedroom for his Mercedes car key and determined they were no longer in Jason`s bedroom. I asked Kathleen where Jason would typically stay at, and she stated his mother Patricia`s house in the Bluffs in Jupiter.

Kathleen showed me a copy of the domestic order of no contact. The order of no contact was issued on 01/18/2023 and was signed by Jason and a Palm Beach County judge. The order of no contact stated that Jason could not come within 500 feet of Kathleen`s residence unless he was in the presence of a uniformed Police officer.

Kathleen did a controlled call on scene to Jason, in which he answered. Kathleen asked Jason the whereabouts of his Mercedes and how he obtained the car keys. Jason stated he over the phone that he got a ride to the residence after he was released from Palm Beach County Jail. Jason stated he entered the residence and went to his down stairs bedroom to get his hat and the keys to the Mercedes. Jason stated he then left with the Mercedes to his mom`s house where he stated he currently was. Kathleen advised Jason that what he did was a violation of the no contact order, and Jason advised he was aware of the no contact order while over the phone.

At the conclusion of the phone call, it was determined that Jason entered victim Kathleen`s residence and did not call a uniformed Police officer to assist him while retrieving his belongings. Jason had violated the domestic violence order of no contact. I provided Kathleen with a case number, and she stated she already had a victim`s rights packet from the domestic battery incident the day before.

I responded to the Bluffs in Jupiter, and determined that Jason`s mother`s address was 401 S Seas Dr Apt 105 Jupiter FL. Jason`s white Mercedes was also parked in close vicinity to his mother`s residence. Officers made contact at the residence and I made contact with Jason`s mother, Patricia Crist, when she opened the door.

NARRATIVE

Patricia advised that Jason was currently at the residence and invited me inside. I made contact with Jason and requested he step outside, in which he did. I placed Jason in handcuffs, properly adjusting and double locking them. I informed Jason that he violated his order of no contact and advised him of his Miranda warnings. Post Miranda, Jason advised that he was aware of the no contact order that was issued to him today. Jason also advised that he signed the no contact order and read the parameters of the order. Jason advised that he entered the victim`s residence, 125 Marlberry Cir, to obtain his belongings and the Mercedes. Jason stated he did not call the police to have them assist him.

I subsequently arrested Jason pursuant to FSS 741.31(4)(A)- VIOLATE INJUNCTION FOR PROTECTION DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. I transported Jason to the Palm Beach County Jail where he was released to the on duty staff without incident.

A copy of the no contact order is attached to the filing packet. BWC used.
