NARRATIVE

On 05/23/2026, I responded to 396 SW 28th Avenue, Delray Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, in reference to a domestic disturbance. Prior to my arrival, the caller advised that his neighbor was attacking his wife and that the male had jumped on her and grabbed her by the neck.

Upon arrival, I made contact with the victim, Ilene Klein, who provided a sworn statement. Klein stated that she has been in a dating relationship with her boyfriend, Jason Sprinzen, for approximately three years and that the two currently reside together at the residence. Klein stated that on the previous evening her daughter came to visit the residence, which upset Sprinzen because he does not get along with her daughter and did not want her visiting on his day off. Klein advised that throughout the following day Sprinzen remained angry about the visit and continued yelling and cursing throughout the residence. Klein stated she attempted to de-escalate the situation; however, Sprinzen became increasingly aggressive, got directly in her face, and stated, "I`m going to fucking bash your head in."

Klein advised that out of fear the situation would escalate further, she gathered some of her belongings and temporarily left the residence. Klein then contacted one of Sprinzen`s friends, identified as Paulo Machado, and asked him to come to the residence in an attempt to calm Sprinzen down and speak with him. Klein stated that when she returned to the residence, she informed Sprinzen that Machado was outside wanting to speak with him. According to Klein, Sprinzen eventually walked outside but stated he did not want to speak with Machado. Klein stated that when Sprinzen re-entered the residence, he became angry, aggressively pushed her in the chest, and then grabbed her by the neck and choked her.

While on scene, I observed redness to Klein`s neck and chest area, which appeared consistent with her statement and the alleged battery.

I then made contact with witness Paulo Machado, who provided a sworn statement. Machado stated that Klein contacted him and advised him that Sprinzen was upset and out of control regarding Klein`s daughter being at the residence. Machado stated he arrived at the residence and attempted to speak with Sprinzen outside; however, Sprinzen advised that he did not want to talk and walked back inside the residence while leaving the door open. Machado stated that moments later he heard Klein screaming from inside the residence, yelling words to the effect of, "Oh my God, he`s grabbing me by the neck and choking me." Machado stated that he immediately yelled inside for Sprinzen to stop, after which Klein exited the residence.

I then made contact with Jason Sprinzen and advised him of his Miranda rights, which he acknowledged and agreed to waive. Post-Miranda, Sprinzen stated that he and Klein have been arguing since the previous night regarding Klein`s daughter visiting the residence and that he does not get along with her. Sprinzen stated Klein had been yelling throughout the day and was stressed about a party they were planning later. Sprinzen admitted that, out of frustration, he told Klein he wanted to "punch her in the face," but denied physically striking her. Sprinzen further stated that Klein sometimes develops hives around her neck area.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, including the victim`s sworn statement, corroborating witness statement, observed redness to Klein`s neck and chest area, and Sprinzen`s admissions regarding the verbal threats made during the altercation, probable cause existed to arrest Jason Sprinzen for Domestic Battery in violation of FSS 784.03(1A1) .
