 There is in BWC video for this DUI investigation and it is available On Saturday, March 2nd 2023 at approximately 0158 hours, I was traveling southbound on Jamaican Court approaching International Drive in my agency issued, marked patrol vehicle (#7888). Both of which are public roadways within the jurisdiction of Orange County, Florida. Vehicle in Motion I observed a white 4 door Jeep SUV, FL tag that was stopped in the travel lane. The vehicle sat there for a few seconds then proceeded onto International Drive by making a southbound turn. When the vehicle made the turn it made an improper/wide right turn. The vehicles left tires went into the far outside lane.The stop was initiated by activating the vehicles overhead lights. The vehicle came to its final resting spot in the driveway of 8444 International Drive. Driver Contact I approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver, Jason Lane Sims who was later identified by his Florida Driver's license. After obtaining the driver's name he was asked to step out of the vehicle due to a firearm next to the handbrake of the vehicle. After exiting the vehicle I observed the smell of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. He also had glassy, blood shot eyes. Pre-Arrest Screening After running Mr. Sims through NCIC/FCIC I returned to where he was standing. I asked Mr. Sims if he'd been drinking. He stated "no sir" then stated he drank 2-3 hours ago. I asked Mr. Sims if he had anything to drink. He stated he had a "few" beers. I asked Mr. Sims what he had to drink. He responded "light beer." I mentioned to Mr. Sims I noticed his bloodshot glassy eyes. He stated "no they aren't." I asked Mr. Sims if he felt he was good to drive. He replied "I'm not driving anywhere." I asked Mr. Sims where he was coming from he stated "Rocco's Taco's." I asked Mr. Sims on a scale of 0 being sober and 10 being the drunk he's been. He stated a "00.2 well below .008, I'm 210 pounds I can drink three beers."He advised he would do field sobriety exercises. The first exercise I conducted was horizontal gaze nystagmus. I explained and demonstrated the position to maintain to the subject, which he assumed. I then explained the exercise to him, he said that he understood and I began. During the exercise the subject had a noticeable sway and also slightly moved his head. Horizontal gaze nystagmus clues: Lack of smooth pursuit (1 clue each eye): Observed Distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation (1 clue each eye): Observed Onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees (1 clue each eye): Observed Total horizontal gaze nystagmus clues observed: 6 out of 6 observed The next exercise I conducted was the walk-and-turn exercise. Environment and conditions: The environment was warm and dry. The surface that was used was a flat, dry parking lot, which was relatively free of debris. The line that was used was a white painted parking line within a parking lot. The area was lit with light from my flashlight. I explained and demonstrated the position for the subject to maintain. He stepped on the line with his feet reversed from what I stated. He argued with me stating I told him something different. After correcting him he assumed the position, and I began demonstrating the exercise. During my demonstration the subject was unable to maintain balance and stepped off the line several times and didn't keep his feet heal to toe. Prior to finishing my explanation the defendant ask me to explain the exercise again which I did. Mr. Sims argued with me and wanted myself and Corporal Jenkins to perform the exercise in its entirety before he began. It was told to him that the exercises were for him not us. The subject began taking his first set of steps. The subject missed heel to toe several steps and lost balance. He also stopped walking to losing balance. The subject did an improper turn by taking one big step. The subject stopped prior to taking his second set of steps to ask more questions... During these steps he missed heal to toe on several steps and once again lost balance where he needed to use his arms for balance. Walk-and-turn clues: Can't keep balance while listening to instructions (1 clue): Observed Starts before instructions are finished (1 clue): Not Observed Stop walking to steady (1 clue): Observed Does not touch heel-to-toe (1 clue): Observed Loses balance while walking (steps off the line) (1 clue): Observed Uses arms for balance (raises arms over 6 inches) (1 clue): Observed Loses balance while turning, turns incorrectly (1 clue): Not Observed Incorrect number of steps (1 clue): Not Observed Total walk-and-turn clues observed: 5 out of 8 observed I then conducted the one leg stand exercise. I explained and demonstrated the exercise to the subject. He once again argued with me about the instructions. He once again asked me and Corporal Jenkins to perform the exercise in its entirety before he began.One leg stand clues: Sways while balancing (1 clue): Observed Uses arms to balance (raises arms over 6 inches) (1 clue): Observed Hopping (1 clue): Not Observed Puts foot down (1 clue): Observed Total one leg stand clues observed: 3 out of 4 observed Based on my observations during the subject's standardized field sobriety exercises as well as my training and experience, the subject was placed under arrest for Driving Under the Influence (DUI).
