NARR

On 11/7/2025 at approximately 2032 hours, I was dispatched to 6346 Drake St, Jupiter, FL, 33458 in reference to a domestic disturbance call. Dispatch advised the caller had an argument with his wife. At the time of the call, the caller was in his office with the dog, where he said he was kicked, and slapped by his wife.

NARRATIVE

Officer Ricci and Officer Hobby arrived on scene and were speaking with the caller, Jason Corrigan (WM 9/4/1975), in the front yard of the residence. Upon my arrival, I made contact with J. Corrigan and he provided the following summarized sworn statement:

J. Corrigan said he and his wife, later identified as Allyson Corrigan (WF 10/19/1971), had been arguing since approximately 1330 hours when she got home from her mother`s residence. He said the argument started because of his past affair that occurred three years ago and every time A. Corrigan goes to her mother`s house, she comes home looking to argue about the past. As the argument continued and progressed throughout the day, A. Corrigan slapped him in the face and kicked him in the genital area at approximately 2030 hours, and then he called the police.

J. Corrigan showed me a video of the argument; however, I did not see any physical contact between him and his wife. I did not observe any form of physical evidence of battery on J. Corrigan`s person. (End of J. Corrigan`s summarized sworn statement). J. Corrigan appeared to be intoxicated due to his glassy, bloodshot eyes and slurred speech.

After speaking with J. Corrigan, I asked him to wait with another officer in the street away from his residence and I attempted to make contact with A. Corrigan at the front door. When she came to the door, she was in a towel and said she needed to change clothes, she then closed the door and locked it behind her. After several minutes, she came outside with clothes on and appeared to be upset about police being in her driveway. Even though she was upset, A. Corrigan provided the following summarized sworn statement:

As I began the interview, A. Corrigan attempted to walk back inside and insisted that police were not needed, at which point I redirected her path back into the driveway. She stated that she and her husband had been arguing all day because his parents are too involved in their marriage. She said that during the argument at approximately 2000 hours, J. Corrigan slapped her in the left side on her face, leaving a redness on her left ear.

A. Corrigan showed me multiple videos during the interview that she recorded during the argument. In one of the videos she provided, I observed J. Corrigan physically batter A. Corrigan. In the video of the battery, I observed J. Corrigan standing in front of A. Corrigan as the couple were in a heated argument, when J. Corrigan physically struck A. Corrigan. In the video, A. Corrigan yelled, "stop, don`t you fucking touch me."

As I watched the other videos she provided, I heard the couple going back and forth yelling profanities at one another and did not observe any other physical altercations. (End of A. Corrigan`s summarized sworn statement). A. Corrigan appeared to be very intoxicated due to her glassy, bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, and drastic mood swings.

An Axon citizens request was sent to A.Corrigan`s cell phone in order to obtain a copy of the video, but she became uncooperative. However, I did manage to record a portion of the video on my JPD issued cellphone, and it was uploaded to evidence.com.

Based on the above facts, statements, and the totality of circumstances, I found J. Corrigan to be the primary aggressor in the incident, and probable cause was established to charge him with Domestic Battery - FSS 784.03(1)(A)(1). J. Corrigan was secured in handcuffs, that were double locked, and checked for proper spacing. J. Corrigan was placed in the backseat of my patrol unit and Officer Ricci waited with him while I conducted a Domestic Violence Lethality Assessment and Domestic Violence Victim`s Rights Brochure with A. Corrigan. Based on the score of the Domestic Violence Lethality Assessment, I determined that she is not a risk for a potentially lethal situation and this was explained to A. Corrigan.

After providing her the required information, I took photos of A. Corrigan and observed redness on her left ear. These photos were later uploaded to evidence.com. She became very upset with police taking her husband to jail and became agitated with officer`s present on scene. She had multiple different mood swings throughout the entire investigation, becoming angry with officers, having anger towards her husband, and also crying at times.

J. Corrigan was transported to the Jupiter Police Department for processing. Also, I took photos of J. Corrigan, that were later uploaded to evidence.com.

While at the JPD booking area, A. Corrigan was patched to me by dispatch and was complaining that I had no proof to charge her husband with domestic battery. Also stating that she did not want to pursue prosecution. I explained the process of domestic violence to her multiple times and she became upset eventually hanging up the phone.

J. Corrigan was later transported to the Palm Beach County Jail without incident.

This encounter was captured on my Body-Worn Camera and it should be noted that the above narrative is a summary of the footage and is not purported to be verbatim.
