PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and resonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law

The Person taken into custody . .

- ☐ committed the below acts in my presence.
- ☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.
- ☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.
- ☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 29 day of January, 2025 at 20:04 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On 01/29/2025 at approximately 1937 hours, I responded to the area of 7751 E Country Club Blvd in reference to a two-vehicle accident.

Upon arrival, I observed a gray Hyundai sedan bearing FL tag BV32TF facing southbound in the southbound lanes on E Country Club Blvd in front of residence 7751. The Hyundai had extensive front-end damage with airbags deployed. There was also a black Jeep Wrangler bearing FL tag IQ75BM facing northwest in the front lawn grass of 7801 E Country Club Blvd with a front driver side tire missing and stuck in the dirt. There were obvious tire tracks behind the Jeep showing the path of the Jeep coming northbound on E Country Club Blvd, through the residence front grass lawn of 7799 E Country Club Blvd and coming to final rest at 7801 E Country Club Blvd. The Jeep`s tire was near a mailbox just south of the Jeep. I also observed a white female detained in handcuffs with Ofc. Howard.

I met with Ofc. Gonzalez, who advised he had observed the detained white female, identified by her FL DL to be Jessica Hochhauser, seated in the driver seat of the black Jeep with her seatbelt fastened and attempting to drive away. Ofc. Gonzalez further advised he and BRFD told Jessica to exit the vehicle, however, she continued to rev the engine and attempt to leave, so BRFD assisted by breaking the driver side windows to remove Jessica from the vehicle. Jessica was then detained in handcuffs. While with Officers, Jessica would attempt to walk away. I captured photos of the accident scene on my body camera.

I then met with Jessica. I asked Jessica what happened today, and she replied that officers had been investigating her and she`s drunk. I immediately smelled a strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from Jessica`s breath and person. Jessica`s eyes were also bloodshot and glossy. She was also unsteady on her feet and swaying continuously. Based on my observations, I was concerned that Jessica had been operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol and/or a chemically controlled substance. Ofc. Gonzalez had informed me that he concluded his accident investigation, and so I then informed Jessica that the accident investigation was concluded since she had no information to provide. I advised her that I was now conducting a criminal DUI investigation to determine if during the accident she had been impaired. Jessica advised she understood. I then read Jessica her Constitutional Warnings from a preprinted card issued by BRPD. Jessica advised she understood.

According to Jessica, prior to the accident she was heading home. I asked her where her home was, and she replied, "in South Florida." I asked her where in South Florida, and she replied, "North Palm Beach." I then asked her if she knew her address, and she replied, "6413… 614…613 North American Beach." She advised she was not coming from anywhere. I asked her again where she was coming from, and she replied, "613…313…" She could not tell me where she was coming from. She also did not know where she was; she believed she was in The Keys. She did not know where she was. I then told her that she was in Boca Raton. She then replied that she does not do any drugs in Boca Raton. I then asked her if she does any drugs in general. She replied, "kinda." She stated she did not take any illegal narcotics recently, but she used to do cocaine a long time ago. I then asked her how much she had to drink tonight. She replied, "I don't know… a good amount." I asked her how many drinks specifically, she replied she had 4 beer cans. I asked her where she was when she had the four beers. She replied, "right here." She could not tell me where she was when she consumed the beers. According to Jessica, she has no physical injuries, no medical issues, she is not diabetic, her first language is English, she only takes Ozempic for weight loss as prescribed, and she has no issues with her eyes that are corrected by contact lenses or glasses. I then asked Jessica if she would be willing to participate in field sobriety tasks to dispel my alarm that she is under the influence of alcohol and/or chemically controlled substance. Jessica agreed to participate in the tasks.

I then guided Jessica over a solid white line on a flat and dry surface. Jessica agreed the line was straight and state it was "white." I then removed Jessica out of the handcuffs so she could participate in the tasks. I explained the instructions and asked Jessica if she had any questions. While with me, Jessica lost her balance and fell into me, so I had to catch her and have her stand up straight.

The first task was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus. After explaining the instructions, I asked her if she understood. She replied yes. I then asked if she had any questions, and she replied no. I observed equil pupil size. During the task, I had to remind Jessica multiple times not to move her head. After reminding her, she continued to move her head and not follow directions. I then asked her to hold her head still with her hands and follow the tip of the pen with her eyes only. Jessica then held her head straight but continued to move her head. During the task, I observed lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes, distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both eyes, and nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in Jessica`s left eye. Jessica would lose focus of the pen and look at me multiple times. I was unable to continue with the task due to Jessica`s inability to follow directions. She also was swaying a lot and would move her hands. She then showed me her middle finger and laid down on the grass beside us.

I then asked her if she was going to continue the tasks. She then showed me her middle finger again. I extended my hand and told her to give me her hand to help her stand up, and she instead slapped my hand away. I asked her if she was refusing to continue the tasks. I informed her of her Taylor Warnings, to include that if she refused to continue with the field sobriety tasks, I will be forced to make an arrest decision based on my observations up until this point, and her refusal can be used against her in court as evidence. Jessica advised she understood and stated she did not want to participate in the tasks. Based on my observations, I developed probable cause to arrest Jessica Hochhauser for DUI. I then informed her she was being placed under arrest for DUI. Officers and I lifted Jessica to stand up. I placed the handcuffs on Jessica, checked for tightness and proper fit. I conducted a search of her person and placed her into my marked patrol vehicle.

I then transported Jessica to BRPD BAT facility. Ofc. Bagwell responded to BRPD BAT as the breath tech operator. Upon our arrival at BRPD BAT, a 20-minute observation was conducted on Jessica, and then she was taken into the BRPD BAT room. Inside the BAT room, I asked Jessica to provide a breath sample. Jessica refused to provide the breath sample. I then read Jessica her Florida Implied Consent Warnings. Jessica advised she understood. She again refused to provide a breath sample. I then asked Jessica if she remembered her Constitutional Warnings that I read her on scene, and she advised she understood. I then asked her questions from the DUI Influence report, and she answered some but then stopped. I then asked her why she attempted to leave the scene of the accident, and she did not answer. Lastly, I afforded Jessica one final opportunity to continue with the field sobriety tasks if she wanted to, and she did not want to. See DUI Influence report.

Jessica Hochhauser is being charged with DUI pursuant to F.S.S. 316.193(1)(a). Jessica is additionally being charged with leaving the scene of an accident with injuries pursuant to F.S.S. 316.061(1) after she attempted to flee the accident scene by attempting to drive away, however, being stopped by her Jeep being stuck in the dirt. Lastly, Jessica is being charged with resisting without violence pursuant to F.S.S. 843.02 after she continued to attempt to drive away as BRPD Officers and BRFD told her to exit the vehicle, resulting in BRFD to break her vehicle windows and remove her from the vehicle. I issued Jessica a DUI citation (#AJVI9IE). Jessica was medically cleared at Boca Regional Hospital and then transported to Palm Beach County Jail without issue. Jessica`s vehicle was towed to Priority Towing.
