NARR

On 8/12/25 at approximately 2050 hours, I responded to 1203 Town Center Drive unit 113 in reference to a Domestic Battery. Dispatch advised that the caller stated her husband had attacked her and threw her outside.

Upon arrival, I was flagged down by a white male matching the description of the male half given by the caller. The male, later identified as Randy Hurley (W/M 9/17/83) was accompanied by another male, Jorge Solano (B/M 10/21/94). Randy asked if I was called by his wife, which I confirmed. I had Solano stand by with Officer Tappin while I spoke with Randy.

Randy advised the following: He and Solano had been in their office, which is connected to the rear of a bar. His wife, Julie Hurley (W/F 4/25/83), suddenly entered the office using the keycode she has to the door. Julie began yelling and walking towards Randy, so Solano got between Julie and Randy and Julie hit Solano in the face. After Julie hit Solano, Randy grabbed Julie from behind and wrapped his arms around her. He picked her up and then brought her out the back door where he left her and went back inside. While he was carrying her outside, Julie hit Randy in the face with her elbows as she flailed. Randy further advised that him and Julie have been having marital issues lately and she gets upset when he does not come home at a certain time, which is why he believes she was angry to begin with. While speaking with Randy I noted several signs of impairment including glassy bloodshot eyes, and slurred speech, as well as the faint odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage on his breath.

While I had been speaking with Randy, Julie finally walked around to the back of the building. I instructed her to wait with another officer until I could speak with her. When I approached Julie to speak with her, she was visibly upset and very animated. Julie advised the following: She had texted Randy and asked him when he was coming home and he never answered, so she showed up to the office. When she got to the office, she saw a girl was there and became upset. Solano suddenly got into her face and began saying that it was his girlfriend who was there. Julie stated that she hated him so she slapped Solano in the face. Randy then came up from behind Julie and grabbed her and threw her out of the office. Julie walked to the front and began talking to several patrons of the bar about the incident and Solano came out and tried to talk to her. Julie went back into the office and Solano began yelling again that the girl had been his girlfriend and as things became heated Randy once again pulled Julie out of the back door to the office and locked her out.

I spoke with Officer Tappin who advised that Solano had given a similar statement Julie. I placed Julie in handcuffs which were properly spaced and double locked and had her stand by with another officer while I spoke with Solano. Solano advised the following: Julie had come into the office suddenly wondering where Randy was and was acting aggressive. Solano's girlfriend had been walking out of the office at the same time that Julie had been coming in. Julie was upset at seeing the girl leave, so Solano approached Julie to explain that that had been his girlfriend, when Julie suddenly yelled "fuck off" and slapped Solano in the face, knocking his glasses off. Randy grabbed Julie from behind and had to fully wrap his arms around her as she kept flailing and brought her outside. A few minutes later, Solano noticed that all the bar patrons were looking around and towards the office and Julie was creating a commotion speaking to several patrons. Solano went out to the bar and asked Julie to talk it out. Julie came back into the office and Solano attempted to explain that the girl who had been leaving the office was his girlfriend but Julie again became aggressive and animated, so Randy once again escorted her out the back door. Solano advised that he did not want to press charges against Julie for battering him.

Based on the above investigation, I find Julie to be the primary aggressor in the altercation. I find that Randy's actions were reasonable as Julie had just struck Solano in the face, and a reasonable person would assume that she might do it again. Randy's actions were aimed at controlling Julie's movements to prevent her from striking Solano a second time and removing her from the room. As Julie struck Randy while he was carrying her outside, I find probable cause exists to arrest Julie Hurley for domestic battery as she did actually and intentionally touch Randy Hurley against the will of Randy Hurley, who was a family of Julie Hurley, contrary
