NARRATIVE

Richard G. Gore (W/M 05/10/1983) who was located outside the home. Gore provided the following statement:

On 04/20/2024 at approximately 10:00 hours, he arrived at his storage unit located at 661 Maplewood Drive, Jupiter, to retrieve some personal items for work. Upon entering, he found his wife, later identified by FL DL as Julie S. Maiste (W/F 02/04/1984) inside the unit, asleep in the bed with bottles of wine next to her. He woke her up and offered to bring her back to their home located at 16648 90th Trail North, Jupiter. Maiste agreed and both parties relocated inside their vehicle and left the property. During the car ride home, Maiste began a verbal altercation with Gore, due to the fact that he had not yet booked her a flight to see her sick father in Estonia. The verbal altercation escalated and Maiste began striking and grabbing Gore. With her hand she struck his arm and side of his head, she attempted to grab and pull on his arm multiple times. He attempted to protect his face and covered it with his arm. Gore pulled the vehicle over to the side of the road and asked Maiste if he needed to call the police or if she would calm down so that he could drive them home. Maiste stated that she would calm down and that he did not need to notify law enforcement. Gore began driving, however Maiste began striking him in the arm and side of his face again. Maiste grabbed his shirt, causing a large tear in the clothing. Gore again stopped the vehicle and told Maiste to calm down, to which she eventually complied. Gore arrived to their residence and parked the vehicle. Maiste got out and approached him, however he instructed her to go inside the house and leave him alone. Maiste went inside and Gore called 911. Gore stated that Maiste struck him approximately twenty times during the course of the ride home. Maiste had also threw her cellular device at him during the incident.

During my interview with Gore, his shirt was torn at the neck. He also had red marks present to his right arm and his right ear, consistent with statements made. Gore advised that him and Maiste are legally married and have been since 2013.

I later made contact with Maiste who was present at the home. Maiste provided the following statement regarding the incident:

On 04/20/2024, Maiste had spent the night and slept inside her and her husband Gore`s storage unit. In the morning Gore arrived and drove her back to their home. During the car ride home, Gore and her were in a verbal altercation regarding a plane ticket he was meant to book for her to see her father who is very ill. Maiste stated that the argument escalated and became physical. She had grabbed Gore`s shirt and grabbed him by the arm while both parties were inside the vehicle. Maiste did not provide any further information regarding the incident.

Based on statements provided and the marks present to Gore`s arm and ear, probable cause was established to charge Julie S. Maiste with Simple Battery and that she did actually and intentionally touch or strike Richard G. Gore against his will, contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1).

The incident was captured on my BWC. The above narrative is a summary of the events that took place and not purported to be verbatim.
