The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did:
On the aforementioned date, time, and location, the defendant and the victim got into a verbal argument in reference to messages on a phone. While the victim was holding the defendant's phone, the defendant struck the victim in the back of the head several times. The defendant then walked out of the aforementioned location residence briefly, came back, and then struck the victim again in the back of the head multiple times again. While being struck, the victim attempted to defend himself by ducking down. The defendant and victim are in a romantic relationship and have been living together at the aforementioned location as a family unit for approximately one month. The victim identified the defendant as the person who committed the offense. Your affiant positively identified the defendant via a Illinois driver's license. The defendant is no APAD eligible in reference to a domestic violence related charge.

Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge. For Notices to Appear, I also certify that a complete list of witnesses and evidence known to me is attached.
