NARRATIVE

mother. Frank Guidice Sr. had to pick up Waldron because her mother took her phone.

I made contact with Waldron who stated the following: Waldron advised she was home alone when she received phone calls from her mother Katrina Pasco. Pasco left the residence and went to walk to the store. Waldron advised she had to beg her mother to return to the residence. When Pasco returned, she asked Waldron to go walking with her however, Waldron refused. Pasco became upset and told Waldron that she was disobeying God and that she needed to walk with her. Waldron advised once she refused again, Pasco came into her room and grabbed Waldron`s electronics and phone. Pasco then began to yell in Waldron`s face. Pasco then grabbed Waldron by the arm and threw her against the wall. Waldron attempted to get away from Pasco and was screaming for her to stop. Pasco began mocking Waldron and mimicking the words she was saying in her face. Pasco then hit Waldon with a closed fist on the left side of the face.

Waldron advised once she was able to get away from Pasco, she grabbed a notebook that she had phone numbers written in and left the residence. Pasco attempted to follow her out of the residence but Waldron was able to take a shortcut to Starbucks. At Starbucks, Waldron used their phone to call Frank Guidice Sr. to pick her up.

Waldron had injuries on her left arm that appeared to be scratched from when Pasco grabbed her and a knot on the left side of her head from where Pasco punched her. Waldron also has an injury on her hand that she sustained from falling attempting to get away from Pasco. Photos of Waldron`s injuries were taken and uploaded to evidence.com.

Waldron advised this incident occurred inside of her room. I looked inside of the room and there were sheets thrown to the ground and chips crushed on the floor as if there was a struggle inside of the room. The rest of the apartment did not show any signs of a struggle. Photos of the room were taken and uploaded to eviednece.com.

I made contact with the mother, Katrina Pasco at the residence. Pasco was attending to look for her daughter Ava Waldron. Pasco advised she and Waldron got into a verbal dispute over finances and Waldron left the residence.

Pasco advised she and Waldron do not normally get into verbal disputes much but this time was different. Pasco looked for Waldron for over an hour and then made contact with us because we were in the apartment complex for assistance. Pasco advised she was trying to pay the rent and meet with community partners. When she arrived home she told Waldron to go to bed and she got upset. After being upset, Pasco advised Waldron left the residence. Pasco did not have any injuries.

Based on the above facts, the statements provide injuries to Waldron and the room scene, probable cause exists to arrest, Katrina Pasco for F.S.S.784.03(1A1)- Battery (Domestic).

Katrina Pasco was transported to PBC Jail without issues.

Pasco has four other children who live in the residence. The children were not present when the incident occurred. The children are the following: Frank Guidice Jr. (W/M, 07/29/2008), Veronica Guidice, (W/F, 07/31/2010), Penelope Pasco, (W/F, 03/10/2019), and Ezekiel Pasco, (W/M, 03/10/2016).

A copy of this report will be faxed to DCF.
