PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and resonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

☐ committed the below acts in my presence.

☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 23 day of January, 2024 at 18:59 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On January 23rd, 2024, at approximately 1900 hours, I was dispatched to [redacted] in reference to an active domestic disturbance involving a knife. The caller, Kathryn HESS, stated that her husband, Kevin SWINK, had threatened her with a knife, pulled her hair, and she locked herself inside a bathroom. While enroute, SWINK also dialed 911 stating that he had not done anything, his wife was intoxicated, and his wife has made false allegations in the past.

Upon arrival, I observed HESS standing on the enclosed porch of the unit smoking a cigarette. I ordered her away from the residence to other Officers. I commanded SWINK exited the residence and he complied without incident. He was detained pending further investigation.

HESS and SWINK are currently married and live together as a family in this home. She said that she was listening to music which reminded her of her deceased brother when SWINK got upset. She alleged that he became aggressive, and she retreated to be by herself in her bedroom. HESS explained she closed the door and soon after, SWINK entered the room and charged towards her as she laid on the bed. She claimed he grabbed her by her hair and dragged her out of the bed, causing her to hit her head on the ground. SWINK allegedly then left her, returned to the room a short time later and produced a small folding knife. HESS said SWINK held the knife in his right hand and held her down while bringing the knife close to her neck. After, HESS moved to a bathroom inside the house and called 911. After not locking the door, HESS opened the door after SWINK tried the door handle and she ceased telephone contact with 911 call takers. During our encounter, I noticed a faint, redness to the right side of HESS` face; however, it was not readily apparent what could have caused it. HESS described SWINK as being heavily intoxicated, but she denied drinking herself. It should be noted I could detect the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from HESS` breath at conversational distance.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

SWINK was read Miranda Warnings via prepared text to which he understood and waived. SWINK said he was smoking a cigarette on his porch when HESS started playing her music. He did not want to be around her, as she approached him outside and became aggressive. He said he tried moving inside the residence, and was walking up the porch stairs when HESS, who he said was intoxicated, moved towards him, and used both of her hands to push him on his back shoulders, causing him to fall. SWINK claimed he rolled into the doorway, stood up, and went to separate himself inside his bedroom. Shortly after, HESS was said to have entered the same room and began aggressively confronting SWINK, as she was moving in his personal space. Wanting to create distance, SWINK said he used both of his hands to push HESS on her shoulders and away from him. He claims she did not fall over, did not sustain injury, and that she began telling him that she was going to make false allegations to Law Enforcement about their encounter. Further, SWINK denied ever pulling a knife on HESS, pulling her hair, or causing the redness to her face. It should be noted I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage on SWINK's breath too.

It is important to note Officers were not able to locate the alleged weapon that HESS described.

Both parties refused Fire-Rescue. Based on the results of my investigation, both parties provided conflicting statements about the events this evening. They each proclaimed a Battery against their person resulting from the initial actions of the opposing party. I could not substantiate claims of an Aggravated Assault occurring against HESS. Both parties were placed under arrest for the offense of Battery- Touch or Strike- Domestic Violence and delivered to the PBSO Main Jail for further processing.
