NARRATIVE

obviously upset. [redacted] stated that she got into a physical altercation with [redacted] identified [redacted] by name as W/M Kevin C. Hager 03/16/1995. [redacted] said that she went through Hager's cell phone and discovered that he was talking to other females. [redacted] said that she then walked to the main bedroom of her apartment where she made contact with Hager. [redacted] said that she confronted Hager about the other female and that he got upset because she went through his cell phone. [redacted] said that Hager got up from the bed and used both his hands to choke her. [redacted] said that Hager choked her one more time and then hit her in the head. I asked [redacted] if Hager used his fist or open hand to hit her and she stated that it happened too fast for her to see. [redacted] said that while the incident was taking place her cat jumped on Hager and scratched his left arm. [redacted] said that Hager then proceeded to leave the area driving a silver Jaguar. I then proceeded to check [redacted] for any marks or bruises around her neck or any redness on her head. No marks or bruises were observed on [redacted] neck or head.

It should be noted that before making contact with [redacted] I observed a vehicle matching the description provided by [redacted] exiting the complex area. It also should be noted that Ofc. Morris #939 was in the area at which time I proceeded to let Ofc. Morris know that the vehicle was exiting the property. Ofc. Morris then initiated a traffic stop at 847 N Federal Hwy and the driver was later identified as Hager.

I then proceeded to make contact with Hager who post Miranda stated that he and [redacted] did get into an argument over [redacted] checking his cell phone. I asked Hager if at any time the argument got physical and he stated that he never touched [redacted]. Hager said that the argument was too heated and that he proceeded to leave the area to avoid further confrontation. I then asked Hager about the injuries on his left arm and he stated that while the argument was taking place [redacted] cat jumped on him, and scratched him.

Based on the information provided by [redacted] I determined that there was enough probable cause to place Hager under arrest for domestic violence. Hager was then informed that he was being arrested for the aforementioned charges at which time I placed Hager under arrest (Securing him in handcuffs, checked for proper spacing, double-locked for safety) I then placed Hager into my marked patrol vehicle. Hager was later transported to CJ.

BWC was active. Marsy's Law form was completed.
