Narrative:

On Sunday, April 14th, 2024 at approximately 2023 hours I responded to 500 Ocean 101 S Federal Highway unit 628, Boynton Beach, FL 33435 in reference to a Domestic Dispute. The caller stated that she is living in an abuse relationship and wants to speak to an officer.

Upon arrival, I was met outside by the caller W/F Ashlyn Lane [redacted] who was visibly upset crying and shaking in fear. Lane stated that she called law enforcement because she wanted advice on how to get out of her abusive relationship with her boyfriend of four years W/M Kevin Jacewicz (12/12/1997). Throughout the conservation of Lane' s options, she mentioned that nothing has been physical today besides her pushing him away from her in an act of self defense because he was in her face yelling so close that their noses were touching about her moving a Titos bottle on the counter. Lane however did state that a physical altercation took place approximately two week ago where Jacewicz was throwing body care product bottles at her, kicking her and grabbing her. With each statement Lane would point to different body parts where she had numerous bruising. Lane provided a sworn statement, stating that approximately two weeks ago her and Jacewicz got into a verbal altercation because she told him that they are no longer together and wanted to leave. Lane stated that throughout the argument Jacewicz started to throw lotion bottles, Shampoo bottles and other body care product bottles at her with the bottles striking her in the bathroom. Lane was so distraught and in fear that she stated she couldn' t remember where exactly the bottles struck her. Lane stated that she did throw a hairspray bottle in Jacewicz direction to get him to stop throwing things at her and she just balled up on the ground until it was over. Lane stated that Jacewicz kicked her in her legs and grabbed her by her forearms. Lane had bruising to her right leg and upper right thigh and bruising on both of her forearms. All injuries were consistent with Lane' s allegations of being battered. It should be noted that throughout the entire conversation Lane was visibly shaking, crying and kept mentioning that she is scared and does not want to return into the residence with Jacewicz because Jacewicz is abusive mentally, emotionally and physically. Lane refused medical attention. Pictures of Lanes injuries were captured via BWC. Lane completed an Exemption and Marsys form, invoking her rights. Lane was also provided the number to the Boynton Beach Police Dept Victims Advocate for further assistants.

Relationship Between Victim and Suspect:

BOYFRIEND AND GIRLFRIEND

Narrative:

I then made contact with Jacewicz who stated that he did yell at Lane about the Titos bottle being moved because to his knowledge Lane does not drink and he found it kind of odd for the bottle to have been moved. Officers then questioned Jacewicz about the incident that occurred approximately two weeks ago. Jacewicz stated that he could not really remember the incident because it was so long ago but stated that he had injuries from Lane repeatedly punching him in his arm and throwing the hairspray bottle. Officers continued to question Jacewicz about the incident and what lead up to the physically portion of the argument and again Jacewicz could not state what happened just kept stating that it was a blur and that Lane's medication made her aggressive. Officers questioned Jacewicz on why he never notified law enforcement when such actions were taking place, he stated that he never thought about it. Jacewicz had a small bruise to the mid portion of his back and a bruise on his upper right bicep. The injuries on Jacewicz appeared to be defensive wounds that couldve have been sustained when Lane was defending herself throughout the altercation. Jacewicz refused medical attention. Pictures of Jacewicz injuries were captured via BWC.

Based off my investigation it was determined that Jacewicz was the primary aggressor in this incident. Jacewicz was placed under arrest (double locked and secured).

Based on that above information, I found probable cause to charge Kevin Jacewicz with (1) count of Simple Battery Domestic pursuant to F.S.S 784.03(1A1). Jacewicz was processed at the Boynton Beach Police Dept and later turned over to the Palm Beach County Jail.
