NARRATIVE

10/17/1980 put a gun to his head during a verbal altercation.

Prior to my arrival Corporal J. Banegas #0931 made contact with Kristina who was outside the residence walking towards officers arriving on scene. Kristina advised nothing was happening and complied with commands given by officers. Kristina was then placed in handcuffs.

I made contact with Kristina and advised her of her Maranda Rights. Kristina agreed to speak with me and provided me with the following sworn statement. Kristina stated prior to our arrival; she initiated a verbal altercation with her husband Randy on the driveway of the residence. Kristina informed me the argument was in reference to her husbands alleged "cheating" and the dispute was verbal only. Kristina denied having or using a firearm during the course of the dispute. When asked if there was a firearm within the residence, Kristina stated she keeps a firearm on the floor within the master bedroom closet.

I then made contact with Randy. Randy provided me with the following sworn statement. Randy stated earlier in the evening he left the residence to go out for a bit. Randy advised when he returned home, he was confronted by his Kristina. Randy stated Kristina was irate and began yelling at him for going out. Randy advised during the course of the argument Kristina pulled out a black Springfield XD9 placed the muzzle on the right side of his neck and pulled the trigger. Randy then informed Kristina he was going to call 911 and Kristina retreated back into the residence. Randy confirmed they keep the aforementioned firearm within a safe located under the master bedroom bed.

I then made contact with the couple`s Juvenile daughter who advised she was inside the residence during the time of the incident and did not witness and altercation or argument. She was only able to confirm that her parents keep a firearm within the residence.

Sgt J. Matonti #1186 informed me he made contact with the couple`s son Caden C. Wolan 01/30/2003 who arrived on scene. Caden was able to confirm that the firearm his parents keep is always located in the Safe under the bed and not in the closet where Kristina stated the firearm is kept.

Randy gave me permission to search the master bedroom to locate the firearm. I proceeded to conducted a search of the master bedroom, the safe Randy advised the firearm was kept only contained personal documents and loose ammunition. The closet where Kristina advised she kept the firearm was thoroughly searched but I was unable to locate the weapon.

The adjacent residences were canvased for surveillance cameras that may have captured this incident but yielded no results.

Based on Randy and Caden`s statements and due to the firearm being missing even with Kristina`s cooperation in attempting to locate the weapon. I have found inconsistencies with Kristina`s explanation. Based on these inconsistencies and the fact that Kristina admitted to initiating the confrontation. I have established probable cause to charge Kristina with Violation of F.S.S 784.021(1)(A) Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon.

Kristina was transported to the Jupiter Police Department for processing and then the Palm Beach County Jail without incident.
