[ ] Marsy's Law (Y)
FL Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On Wednesday, August 7th, 2024 at approximately 1705 hours, while traveling southbound on North Jog Road in the westbound turn lane approaching Okeechobee Boulevard, in Unincorporated West Palm Beach, within Palm Beach County Florida I observed a black BMW X3, bearing FL tag: PD141Z traveling southbound in the outside southbound through lane also approaching Okeechobee Boulevard. The vehicle began swerving towards my unmarked patrol car several times. I utilized my air horn and my vehicle horn, making several audible alerts for the driver to be alerted that there was a vehicle there and it was not safe for her to make a lane change and therefore, should not continue trying to swerve into my lane. Despite hitting the air horn and regular horn I also active my emergency police siren to my patrol car several times. The vehicle continued swerving into my lane at one point causing me to strike the raised cement pedestrian sidewalk. It should be noted that I had to slam on my brakes to avoid the collision with that vehicle several times. The vehicle then made a right (westbound) turn onto Okeechobee Boulevard.

At that time, I activated my red and blue police lights and siren to my unmarked patrol car in an attempt to initiate a traffic stop. The vehicle failed to stop after the lights and siren were activated and continued traveling westbound on Okeechobee Boulevard in the outside lane for approximately a quarter mile, throughout this time I gave several verbal commands via the PA system on my vehicle for the driver to pull over. Once the vehicle finally stopped, I was able to make contact with the driver and sole occupant. The driver was argumentative and refused to provide me with her driver license, registration, and insurance despite me asking her several times for it. The defendant, later identified by Florida driver license as, Lauren Andrea Gross (white female, date of birth January 1, 1959) began arguing that she would not provide me with any of her information because "I am not a real cop" and she refused to provide me with any information until there was another officer there with a marked patrol car. I showed her my issued Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office identification card and she still refused to cooperate and stated the identification card was fake. At that time, I requested a back-up unit via my issued handheld police radio. Once back up arrived she still refused to identify herself and give me the necessary information. She continued to say she would not give me her information and was not going to speak with me and wanted to speak with another officer. I then gave her several verbal commands to give me her information and explained I was the officer that initiated the traffic stop, to which she refused. I then asked her to step out of the vehicle several times and she refused. I then assisted her out of the vehicle where she was placed into handcuffs which were checked for proper fit and tightness. Deputy Sheriff P. Valenzuela (identification number 18348) searched her incident to arrest and escorted the defendant to the backseat of her patrol car.

The defendant was told she was under arrest for resisting arrest without violence and issued a citation for failure to drive within a single lane, pursuant to Florida state statute 316.089(1). The defendant was then transported to the Palm Beach County Criminal Justice Complex. Sisters towing later responded and towed the vehicle to their tow yard.
