[ ] Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

I was dispatched to 5518 W. Atlantic Avenue #207, located in unincorporated Delray Beach (Palm Beach County, FL) in reference to a domestic dispute. Upon arrival at the apartment, I was met outside with a white male wearing a multi-color pants and no shirt. Near this white male, later identified as Michael Stewart, and laying in the driveay were multiple article of clothing.

Through fact findings, I asked Stewart what was going on and he stated that he and his girlfriend, Lauren Wallenta, was arguing for the past day and upon her returning from work, they began arguing again at which time Wallenta began attacking him. He stated that he attempted to leave, but Wallenta continued attacking him by scratching him upon his body and choking him. Stewart stated he began recording the altercation with his cellphone, which he showed me. On the video, Wallenta was using profanities towards Stweart and striking him with her hands, pushing him, and placing her arm around his neck. The video also showed Wallenta attempted to grab Stewart's phone multiple times.

I observed numerous scratch marks on Stewart's body, which included his neck, back, and arms. Photos were taken of his injuries and uploaded into evidence. I asked Stewart who's clothing were strewn about in the driveway and he stated they were his. According to Stewart, he and Wallenta have been drinking alcoholic beverages and after he was able to get away from her and go downstairs to dial 911, she began throwing his clothes out of the apartment from their bedroom balcony onto the driveway. A sworn recorded statement was taken from Stewart. I met with Wallenta inside the apartment, located inside her master bedroom and upon speaking with her, she stated she could not do this. Wallenta appeared to be crying and stated that Stewart does not live at the apartment and is not on the lease.

During Miranda warning, Wallenta refused to acknowledge she understood her rights. After Miranda warning, she stated she have been emotionally and physically abused in the past by Stewart, but never called law enforcement to file a report. Wallenta kept talking about past domestic disputes, but would not tell me what occurred today. I asked her how Stewart received the scratches/bruises upon his body and she would not tell me, but stated he broke her nail. I then asked her how his clothing ended up in the driveway and she stated because that's what we wanted. Wallenta stated she and Stewart have been boyfriend/girlfriend for about a year and half, but he comes and goes when he feels like. At that time, probable cause existed to charge Wallenta with domestic battery pursuant to F.S. 784.03(1a1). She was then placed into handcuffs, which were checked for proper fit and double-locked. She was then taken to my marked PBSO patrol vehicle and placed into the backseat. Wallenta was later transported to the PBC jail for booking.
