NARR

On 4/29/2018, at approximately 2045 hours, I responded to 200 E Palmetto Park Rd Apt 806 in reference to a domestic disturbance. It was reported a male subject was in the apartment with a pistol.

Upon arrival I asked all occupants to exit the apartment. I asked one of the female subjects, Deborah Gaslow, where the firearm was located. Deborah advised the firearm was in the living room on a table. I checked the living room but was unable to locate the firearm. I asked the male subject, Lawrence Gaslow, where the firearm was located. Gaslow advised the firearm was secured in his bedroom.

I met with Jaqueline Robinson, who advised she and her friend Deborah Gaslow were returning to the apartment when Deborah`s ex-husband, Lawrence Gaslow, began yelling at them. Jaqueline stated Deborah and Lawrence had divorced sometime a few months ago but advised Deborah had been living at the apartment for approximately two weeks and was going to be staying there for a few more weeks. Deborah attempted to unlock the door with her keys but was unable to because something had been used to barricade the door from the inside. Jaqueline, concerned something was wrong, took out her phone and began recording. Deborah then unlocked the door and pushed it open. Upon entering the apartment, Lawrence came to the foyer and began yelling at them. Jaqueline claimed Lawrence then grabbed Deborah`s phone out of her hand. Deborah then attempted to get her phone back from Lawrence but Lawrence refused, grabbing Deborah by the wrists and holding her back. Jaqueline claimed Lawrence then approached her and swung at her face, scratching her across the nose. Jaqueline did not have any visible injuries. Lawrence then grabbed Jaqueline by her hair and pulled her to the side. Jaqueline stated Lawrence then chased Deborah around the apartment, again attempting to take her phone from her. At one point Lawrence walked over to a table in the living room, picked up a handgun, angrily walked toward her and Deborah while holding it, and then put it back in the living room. Jaqueline stated she did not see Lawrence point the handgun at anyone. Jaqueline described the handgun as a silver pistol with brown wooden grips. Lawrence and Deborah continued to argue in the living room and kitchen area until BRPD arrived on scene.

Jaqueline then showed me the video of the incident on her cell phone. The video starts with Deborah using her key to open the front door. Deborah and Jaqueline enter the apartment, at which point Lawrence walks into the foyer and confronts them. Lawrence begins yelling at Deborah, telling her to get out of the apartment. Lawrence is then seen aggressively lunging toward Deborah and grabbing at her. Lawrence is then seen backing off, now holding something in his hand. Jaqueline stated that was when he grabbed Deborah`s phone. Deborah then approached Lawrence in an attempt to retrieve her phone. The video then shows Lawrence grabbing both of Deborah`s wrists and holding her back from him. Lawrence then let go of Deborah, who then attempted to go further into the apartment. Deborah can be seen trying to push Lawrence away from her, who was standing in her way and blocking her. Jaqueline follows them into the living room area, at which point Lawrence is seen moving toward the camera and swinging his arm. The video then ended.

I then met with Deborah Gaslow, who advised Lawrence Gaslow began fighting her when she and Jaqueline Robinson came home. Deborah advised she and Lawrence are divorced, but stated she had been living with Lawrence for the past two weeks and had planned on staying there for a few more weeks. Deborah advised despite being divorced, she occasionally sleeps in the same room as Lawrence when he asks. Deborah stated they had been sexually intimate one time since she began staying at the apartment. According to Deborah, when she came back to the apartment with Jaqueline and attempted to open the door it was barricaded from the inside with a chair. Deborah stated she used her key to the apartment to unlock the door and pushed it open. Deborah and Jaqueline entered the apartment and were met by Lawrence in the foyer. Lawrence began yelling at Deborah and Jaqueline and told them both to leave. Deborah stated she was concerned for her dog and wanted to retrieve it and then leave. Lawrence continued to yell, at which point Deborah used her phone to dial 911. Lawrence then lunged toward Deborah and took her phone from her. Deborah then tried to retrieve the phone, but stated Lawrence grabbed her and would not let her have the phone. Deborah then tried to go further into the apartment to get the dog, but was again stopped by Lawrence. Deborah claimed at one point Lawrence lunged toward Jaqueline and tried to hit her face. Deborah regained control of her phone and again called 911. Deborah stated Lawrence went into his bedroom and came back out, now holding a handgun, and pointed the handgun at her. Deborah described the handgun as a silver pistol with brown wooden grips. Lawrence then put the handgun down in the living room. Deborah stated Lawrence then proceeded to chase her around the apartment while yelling at her until BRPD arrived on scene. Deborah stated she was scared of Lawrence, and advised she did not leave because she was concerned for her dog.

I then met with Lawrence Gaslow, who advised he and his ex-wife, Deborah Gaslow, had an argument. According to Lawrence, Deborah and her friend, Jaqueline Robinson, came into his apartment and began causing a disturbance. Lawrence advised he and Deborah divorced several months ago, but he stated she has been living in his apartment for approximately 2 weeks and would be staying there for few more weeks. Lawrence advised he and Deborah had an agreement about her staying at the apartment and advised she had her own key. Lawrence stated Deborah and Jaqueline came to the apartment and advised he did not want them there, leading him to lock the door and block it with a chair. Deborah used her key to the apartment to open the door and go inside. Lawrence claimed Deborah then took his phone from him and tried to call 911. It should be noted, the 911 call came from Deborah`s phone number. Lawrence stated he then took his phone from Deborah and told her and Jaqueline to leave. Lawrence did not explain why he wanted Deborah and Jaqueline to leave, but stated Jaqueline is "garbage" several times. Lawrence could not provide a clear account of what happened inside the apartment, but stated several times he wanted Deborah and Jaqueline to leave. Lawrence repeatedly said he did not put his hands on anyone. When asked about the handgun, Lawrence stated he never brought it out of the room and advised he would never point it at anyone. It should be noted, Lawrence had a leather holster on his right hip.

Based on the information obtained during my investigation, the statements from all parties, and the video taken by Jaqueline Robinson, and the agreement between Deborah and Lawrence Gaslow for Deborah to stay at the apartment, I find Lawrence Gaslow to be the primary aggressor. I placed Lawrence Gaslow under arrest for Domestic Battery in violation of Florida State Statue 784.03(1a1). Gaslow was transported to BRPD for booking and then turned over to Palm Beach County Jail.
