PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and resonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

☒ committed the below acts in my presence.

☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 13 day of June, 2023 at 23:43 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On Tuesday, June 13, 2023, at approximately 11:43 PM, while on routine patrol in the area of Maplewood Drive and Indian Creek Parkway, Jupiter, I observed a 2022 White Hyundai Genesis G70 bearing FL Tag# 59AUIZ approaching the red light outside the lane to go southbound on Maplewood Drive. The vehicle drove extremely slow and then went back into the correct lane, and then when the light turned green, went eastbound on Indian Creek Parkway. Again, the vehicle left the far-right lane going off the roadway and then back again onto the roadway in the right-turning lane. I then completed a traffic stop at Greenway Drive and Indian Creek Parkway. Let it be noted that I was driving a fully marked Jupiter police vehicle and wearing a full class b police uniform. I observed one white female driver, later identified by Florida Driver`s License as Lennette A Campbell (W/F, 01/10/1974).

While speaking with Campbell, the strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanated from her breath and person and intensified as she spoke. Her eyes were glassy and dilated. I asked her where she came from and if she had been drinking. She stated that she was coming from a friend`s house and had two glasses of wine.

I asked Campbell to step out of the vehicle, and when she did, she was uneasy on her feet. I advised that I was conducting a DUI investigation. I then read from a prepared text card for the exercises. She stated she understood, and I requested that she participate in standardized field sobriety exercises based on the aforementioned events, to which she agreed. She stated that she did not do drugs. I asked her if she had taken any prescription medications and if she was under a doctor`s care. She said she does not take any medications, and if she was not under a doctor`s or dentist`s supervision.

The first task I began with was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus task. I instructed Campbell to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side. I demonstrated to Campbell that she would be following my stimulus (tip of my pen/red light) with her eyes and her eyes only and to keep her head still at all times. Campbell stated that she understood the instructions and was ready for me to continue. Campbell`s eyes had no resting nystagmus in either eye, and both eyes were tracked together equally. I observed a lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes and distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both eyes, and she moved her head to follow the tip of my pen and not just her eyes as instructed.

The second task was the walk and turn. I instructed/demonstrated to Campbell to stand on the painted line with her left foot on the line, with her right foot touching her left foot (heel to toe) with her arms at her side. I instructed/demonstrated to Campbell how to complete the task, and she misses heel to toe, steps off the line, uses her arms for balance, does the incorrect number of steps, and does not count each step aloud.

The third task was One-Leg Stand. First, I instructed Campbell to stand with her feet together and arms down at her side. Next, I instructed/demonstrated to Campbell to pick either her right or left leg and raise it approximately six inches off the ground while keeping both legs straight and arms down at her side with her foot pointed. Next, I instructed/demonstrated to Campbell to make sure she looks at her foot at all times and count out loud in the following manner "One thousand one, one thousand two, one thousand three..." until I tell her to stop. Campbell started the task late, did not count out loud right away, and placed her foot down.

The fourth task was the finger-to-nose. I instructed Campbell to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side with her pointer fingers pointed outward. I instructed/demonstrated to Campbell that I would call left (L) or right(R); when I do, with her head tilted back, and eyes closed, she would take the tip of her index finger I called and touch it to the tip of her nose. She stated she understood and did not have any questions. Campbell could not follow directions during this task by touching the tip of her nose with her middle finger and not the index finger to the tip of her nose as instructed, open her eyes. I asked if she understood the instructions. She said yes.

The fifth was the Romberg Alphabet. First, I instructed Campbell to stand with her feet touching (heel & toes) and to keep her arms down at her side. Next, she was instructed to tilt her head back and close her eyes while reciting the alphabet non-rhythmically. Campbell said her highest level of education was college. During this task, Campbell started the alphabet, did not keep her eyes closed or head tilted, and stated the ABCDOI. I then told her to stop.

Based on my investigation, observations, and totality of circumstances, I had probable cause to believe that Campbell was in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, chemical, or controlled substance, to the point where her normal faculties were impaired, contrary to F.S 316.193. She was handcuffed behind her back, double-locked, and checked for proper spacing at 11:43 PM.

At 11:49 PM, she was marked as a refusal. After I asked for breath, I read implied consent, and then she refused to give breath again. I placed Campbell in my patrol vehicle and transported her to Jupiter Police Department holding. At the same time, all necessary paperwork was completed, and she was subsequently booked into the Palm Beach County Jail. She was given a criminal court date of 07/26/2023, 0830 hours.

The above incident was captured on BWC. This narrative summarizes the events and is not purported to be verbatim.

The vehicle was towed by All Hooked Up.
