[ ] Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On May 17, 2023 at approximately 1400 hours, I responded to 10862 Paso Fino Dr located in unincorporated Lake Worth, in Palm Beach County Florida, in reference to meeting with DCF in reference to this ongoing custody issue.

Upon my arrival I made contact with DCF investigator Kali, she gave me two orders she had one for a take into custody order the other was an order for her to get into the residence to check on the well-being of the children and condition of the residence. Through investigation I found that the take into custody order had already been served it was dated for the 10th of May, it was served last week and the kids were turned over to the dad. The other order was fresh and was signed by a judge yesterday. Other deputies and I went to the residence to make contact with the family and execute the order with DCF. When we arrived at the residence we were unable to make contact with anyone there, through further investigation we learned that the residence had been emptied and neighbors stated they saw a u-haul truck there late in the day yesterday moving items out of the residence. There was no contact made with the kids or Lisa.

I made contact with the Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office (PBCSAO) Domestic Violence Unit In reference to this ongoing custody issue. Please reference these PBSO case number to show refusal to turn children over on Lisa's part 23064063, 23066542, 23067434, 2368182, 23068982. The one time the children were turned over to Robert was when the Take Into Custody Order was signed by a Palm Beach County Judge and served by PBSO. After speaking with PBCSAO about these cases they informed that there is enough probable cause to file for a warrant for Lisa for Interference of Custody F.S.S. 787.03.

Further investigation was conducted and it was found that a rental car that was rented to Lisa's father was returned earlier today at the Enterprise location at the Fort Myers Air Port. It should be noted that deputies were under the impression that Lisa's parents were living at the above listed address with Lisa and the children.

I made contact with Robert over the phone, I was able to meet him at Wellington Community High School Located at 2101 Greenview Shores to conduct a taped sworn statement. The statement was taken on my PBSO issued Axon 3 Body Camera and uploaded. He was sowrn in and his statement is as follows quoted from Evidence.com.

"Um, so it, it's, it, we, my ex and I have been going through a divorce for three and a half years that started with her domestic violence. Um, she has taken my children away once to the state of Washington for over a year and a half. It took a significant amount of work in the courts to force her to come back. Um, there was a temporary order for relief that she didn't follow dozens of times for my time sharing. We finally get to the point where the final judgment comes through. And after trial in October, the judgment came through on May 1st. On May 1st, when I read the judgment, I was awarded primary custody, and they found evidence of significant parental alienation, um, and a variety of other factors, including, um, the claims that she had against me. They, they said the word that they were dubious or something like that. So on May 1st, we received the judgment award against, um, primary custody in a 60 40 split on May 3rd, uh, in accordance with the order. Um, I went to go pick up the children exactly 48 hours to right, almost to the minute, uh, to go pick up the children because we knew it was a high conflict situation. My attorney advised that I had deputies present, so I contacted P B S O, um, maybe an hour or so in advance. They met me there. And, um, we, at approximately 3 35, um, we were at the house and the deputies actually said, we'll, go knock on the door. First. When they knocked on the door, there was nobody there, no answer. Multiple times they knocked. There was no answer. The deputies shared a report number and then they left. I went to go look in the car that was also awarded to me. It was unlocked. My key didn't work. She had reprogrammed it. And then just out of the top of my head, I was like, maybe go, maybe go knock on the door. So I did my ex-mother-in-law answer and quickly ran and hid, and my children opened the door. At this point, um, I, uh, had the deputies called back. They came back within a a minute. They were there seconds later. Um, actually it was, um, my, my partner, um, who called them, she was, she called them, um, my children were refusing to come with me, and they kept looking over and glancing over at their grandparents who were there. And the deputies, um, came to facilitate the conversation. At that point, my ex-mother-in-law, Brenda King, got in the face of DS Harvey, um, stating, you don't have a warrant, you can't be here. Things like that. Um, and then William King, Brenda's husband, Lisa's stepfather, said, he is not a resident. He is not something or other. So anyway, pickup was refused not by my ex-wife, who later testified in an emergency hearing that she wasn't even there that day. Pickup was refused by her parents. Um, the next day, my attorney, um, filed a ex parte pickup order. Um, that was Thursday, May 4th. And then that was scheduled for hearing, uh, an emergency hearing in person, um, at the county courthouse in front of Judge Schul on May 9th. Um, on May 9th. Um, we had the hearing with my attorney present and Lisa's attorney present, Lisa's my ex-wife, Lisa's attorney present. Lisa was there as well. Her attorney's name is Bill Walsh Shine. Um, we presented our case. They didn't have a case to present, but then they decided to have a conference and then came back and said, well, maybe I do have some questions. So they asked some questions of Lisa. At the end of it, the judge, uh, told Lisa, um, we're ordering reunification therapy for the father. And the judge looked right at Lisa and said, the children need to be with their father. That is the ruling of this court. You must comply with this. That was in the late afternoon. Um, so he granted our ex parte pickup order, which I think the word is clerked. It was clerked the next morning. As soon as that was clerked, I got a notification and my email and my attorney called me and they said, you got it. Go pick up the children. You need to go pick 'em up. So I called P B S L again to help facilitate the pickup, and they did. When they got there, there was nobody home. And, um, corporal Derby, who is very happy and helpful, um, uh, said he needed at Lisa's phone number to contact her. He was able to get her on the phone, um, said, ma'am, we need to be here now. She said she wasn't aware of any order. He gives her 60 minutes to come back home. She arrives back at the house maybe 75 or 80 minutes later. And, and this is on, um, May 11th, was the date that that was picked, uh, or I'm sorry, May 10th was the day that we picked up the children. Um, the children immediately bolted out of the car, ran in the house, locked the door. Um, Lisa argues with the deputies, tells them that she doesn't know how to break into the house, breaks into the house, and the children are gone. I overhear her tell the deputies, I don't have a way to contact them. They don't have a phone. Where are my children? And moments later, it seemed like all of P B S O descended on my property. Um, there were dozens it seemed like, uh, officers plus the police helicopter, they eventually find my children.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

[ ] Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

My children never go back inside the house. They come with me after much arguing, and we actually have a decent day together. Um, they're cold, they're anxious, um, they don't know what's going on. It's a traumatic event. But my son Henry, played in the pool and my girls were playing with the dogs and playing fetch out in the yard. My son and I, Ethan, um, he stayed up with me til almost 11 or 1120 at night, just catching up and playing video games. Um, we both crashed on the couch next to each other. Um, and the next morning, um, we did breakfast. I made scrambled eggs and Ethan wanted an omelet. So I made, um, um, and then Lisa was scheduled to pick up the children for her visitation on Thursdays. So this was, this was um, Thursday, May 11th. She was scheduled to pick them up, um, according to the order at 2:00 PM we coordinated that. She arrived about 200 5300 feet from my house with, um, within like an hour of her pickup time. And she just stood there parked. And my daughter was in the corner of the yard facing her earlier that at the previous day, early in that evening, my daughter pulls out a telephone from her back pocket. And remember, my daughter didn't enter the house after being picked up. So she had a phone on her and she says, mom gave her this phone in case of emergencies. And I asked, I told her, we don't have technology after bedtime. Um, you know, my, my girlfriend's, uh, my, my partner's daughter is in, in school. We don't, we, we have that stuff locked down after a certain time. So we were trying to just, you know, be parents. So no, you, you can't have, well, I'm not giving it to you. Mom gave me this in case of emergencies. And I was like, well, I need to be able to get ahold of you in emergencies too. What's the phone number said, I'm not giving you the phone number. So again, back to the next day at 2:00 PM uh, I tell, uh, or just before 2:00 PM I talk to Lisa on the phone. I say, Hey, I know you've been waiting outside the house, uh, a little bit down the street for a while now. Um, you're at the wrong house. And I said, here's the house that you need to come to. Just come to the bottom of the driveway and I'll make sure the kids come down. I walked the kids to the bottom of the driveway. I told them I loved them. And then I would see them tomorrow because I picked them back up on Fridays at 6:00 PM And that was that, um, she had deputies with her and I said, thank you guys. I hope you have a great day, or something like that. And the whole exchange took two minutes. Um, the very next day, uh, I was supposed to pick them up at 6:00 PM that was May 12th. So I arrive at the house to pick them up at 5:59 PM I go through the door. The kids are saying they don't want to go. And Lisa is not facilitating. The kids are supposed to come with me for a number of days, including, um, excluding Mother's Day. And she had one small jansport backpack filled maybe a third of the way, but everything for four children. So I call, I, I tell her, you know, we sit there and talk for like 10 minutes and I tell her that she has a responsibility to facilitate this exchange that they're inside the house, that they're with her, she needs to help get them in the car. And she said, well, I'm not gonna do that. So I called the deputies again and um, God, I can't remember their names, but they came and she continued to refuse to pick up or to, to let the kids go with me. She refused in the presence of I think two, or I think three deputies were there, two, two men and one, one woman. Um, and May 14th was Mother's Day. So she would've had the kids anyway. She would've had them till 8:00 AM the next day on Monday morning. Monday morning on May 15th, again, trying to follow the order and have the kids come back home with me. I go to the house, I tried to pick them up and I met with the same resistance and she's refusing to cooperate. So I called the deputy, he again, and she, um, corporal Derby came back to the house and she refused with Corporal Derby to cooperate. Um, I was in the car, so I couldn't hear the conversation. Um, so that was this last Monday, May 15th, um, today in the midst of getting some phone calls from P B S O and um, dcf, um, as they were trying to locate my ex-wife and my children, my next door neighbor, uh, at the other house he calls me and he said, Hey, last night there was a U-Haul here. Well, first he says, are the children with you? And I said, no, cuz he knew the kids were supposed to be with me Monday through Thursday. And he said, well, the police came to my house and asked my mom, have you seen these children? And you know, she immediately called her son, his name is Renan. And they said, and she, they said, the kids are gone. I got to connect with a whole bunch of the neighbors when the helicopter came looking for my kids. And I had maybe a half dozen neighbors come and say, we're so glad the kids are coming with you. They never come outside. We don't see them. Renan told me, all he ever hears from that house is screaming. Um, so Renan tells me that there was a U-haul there with two other cars, and that they were loading up what looked like the entire contents of the house. And this was on, this would've been on May 17th. Um, come to find out, there was some other stuff happening at the house before that with law enforcement. So I don't know the timeline of when the U-Haul was there, but he said it was late in the afternoon. Um, and I don't know where my children are.

Based on the previous cases and the sworn statement from Robert Pierce I find probable for the arrest of Lisa Pierce who did, in the absence of a court order determining rights to custody or visitation, take, detain, conceal, or entice Ethan Pierce (11/30/08), Julia Pierce (03/08/13), Sarah Pierce (02/02/11), and Henry Pierce (10/13/15), a child less than 18 years of age, within or without the State with malicious intent to deprive another Robert Pierce his right to custody of Ethan Pierce (11/30/08), Julia Pierce (03/08/13), Sarah Pierce (02/02/11), and Henry Pierce (10/13/15) and Lisa Pierce was a custodial parent of Ethan Pierce (11/30/08), Julia Pierce (03/08/13), Sarah Pierce (02/02/11), and Henry Pierce (10/13/15), contrary to Florida Statute 787.03(2).

All court documents were uploaded to Evidence.com, a filing packet for a warrant request will follow as soon as all information has been provided.
