ON THE 11 DAY OF MARCH 20 23, AT 0158 ✓AM PM

SUBJECT: Ayers, Lloyd, Wesley CASE NUMBER: 23-045270

AGENCY: PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE ARRESTING OFFICER: INV. W. AMADON

PERSONAL CONTACT

DRIVING PATTERN: Actual physical control (physical evidence or statements putting def. behind wheel of vehicle)

On Saturday March 11, 2023 at approximately 0155 hours I was conducting traffic enforcement at Atlantic Avenue and S State Road 7, located within Unincorporated Palm Beach County. I was traveling southbound and I observed a Palm Beach County Fire Rescue Fire Engine traveling north with its emergency lights activated. I came to a stop and yielded to the fire truck. The fire truck made a U-Turn and I turned west on Atlantic Avenue. I observed the fire truck enter the parking lot of the Wawa located on the southwest corner. I then observed a White Nissan Utility bearing Florida Tag "HNSY65" stopped in the roadway prior to the entrance to the Wawa. I immediately was concerned there was a possible medical call concerning the stopped vehicle. Inv. A. Sentmanat was directly behind me and stopped short of the defendant's vehicle. I pulled alongside and observed a nearly bald white male in a blue shirt occupying the front driver seat. His head was down and to the right. I turned on my handheld flashlight and illuminated him. He looked in my direction and put both of his hands up and gently waved each of them in a dismissive manner. He then lowered the driver side window. I asked if he was ok and he looked ahead of him to the heavily wooded dead end of Atlantic Avenue. He then looked back to me and said he was just lost. I noticed his movements were slow, his speech was slurred and his gaze was distant and unfocused. I then reversed my patrol car to position it in a more safe location. I exited my car and approached the defendant. He was sitting in the driver seat with the engine on and the floor mounted automatic transmission in drive. He was wearing a blue shirt, blue shorts, and one sandal on his left foot. He had his cellular phone in his hand, which was plugged into a charger. He kept scrolling around the home screen cycling through the screens but never opened any application. Based on the observations made by my initial contact as well as the defendant's vehicle being stopped upon a public roadway I informed communications of my location and initiated a traffic stop.

OBSERVATION OF DRIVER:

I asked the defendant to exit his vehicle and come stand in front of my car. I observed the defendant to be unsteady on his feet. I observed the defendant to have a noticeable orbital sway as he stood. I observed the defendant's clothing was properly worn. The defendant's eyes were red, glassy, and bloodshot. The defendant weaved as he walked from his vehicle to the front of mine. The defendant's movements were clumsy, slow, and at times uncoordinated. He struggled to retrieve his sandal from the driver side floorboard and appeared to have trouble placing his right foot into the sandal as well.

DRIVER'S STATEMENTS:

The defendant said he was somewhat diabetic. Inv. Sentmanat is familiar with the disease and asked what type of diabetes does he have. He could not provide a clear answer and after some follow up questions the defendant said he does in fact not have diabetes. The defendant said the only medication he uses is for exercise induced asthma. When asked how much alcohol he consumed the defendant said a little bit. I told him a little bit is different for everyone and asked he elaborate on what that means. The defendant said "one can" as he held his hand up miming holding something.

ODORS:

I immediately detected the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from the defendant's breath that intensified when the defendant spoke.
