PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

☒ committed the below acts in my presence.

☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person commit the below acts.

☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 21 day of May, 2023 at 01:40 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On 05/21/2023 at approximately 0140 hours this Officer was dispatched to a hit-and-run collision in the area of Alt A1A and Gardens Pkwy, PBG, FL. Body worn camera and in car video were used.

Miguel Feal (RP) told dispatch his vehicle a Lincoln Aviator (R4ENX/FL) was side swiped by a Volkswagen Jetta (PCDA42/FL), which continued south bound and was now driving very reckless. Feal followed the Jetta on Alt A1A where he observed and took a picture of it running a steady red light to go east bound on Gardens Pkwy. Feal later emailed this photo to this Officer. Feal continued to follow the vehicle east bound on Gardens Pkwy to Prosperity Farms Rd. Once at a red light at the location, Ofc Komara 511 spotted both vehicles and initiated a traffic stop on the Jetta just south of Prosperity Bay Ct.

This Officer made contact with Feal who stated the event occurred at the intersection just south of where he observed this Officer in the median on Alt A1A, which was Hood Rd. Feal said as the two vehicles were going south bound from a recently changed green light, the Jetta entered his lane and bumped his vehicle. Feal said he flashed his high-beams at the Jetta to gain the driver`s attention, to which the vehicle began to drive recklessly to get away from him. Feal said he never lost sight of the vehicle from start until this point. This Officer inspected Feal`s vehicle and noticed dirt marks on the front passenger tire consistent with a same direction side-swipe, but no actual damage. Feal swore to his statement and was released from the scene.

Next, this Officer inspected the Jetta, which also had dirt markings, which were located on the rear door of the driver side and were consistent with a side swipe as well. Other than the dirt, there was no damage. Since there was no damage to either vehicle, a crash report was not completed.

This Officer spoke with driver and sole occupant of the Jetta, identified via Florida

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

Driver License photo, Madison Youngblood (OF), while she was still seated in the driver seat of the vehicle which was now off. Youngblood appeared highly intoxicated by having low heavy eyelids, bloodshot watery eyes, slow slurred speech, and the very strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from her breath at conversational distance. This Officer was also able to detect the odor of burnt Cannabis emanating from the vehicle. Youngblood said she was coming from "PGA Gardens". Youngblood then said "Sir can I be honest with you", "I am too drunk to drive, I will admit that to you". She then said "I am coming from PGA", then what she said next this Officer could not understand, despite being asked to repeat. Youngblood then clarified she`s meeting a friend because she shouldn`t drive. Youngblood then admitted to consuming five drinks on this night, but would not say where.

Based on this Officer`s observations, this Officer expressed concern to Youngblood that she was driving under the influence and asked her to exit the vehicle to participate in Standardized Field Sobriety Exercises, to which she complied. Once Youngblood exited the vehicle, she lost her balance and fell into the A Pillar of her vehicle.

The first exercise conducted, was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus. The stimulus used was a Stylus Streamlight with an illuminated red tip. This Officer observed a lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes and sustained involuntary jerking in both eyes at maximum deviation. Youngblood also had the onset of Nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in both eyes and Vertical Gaze Nystagmus in both eyes. During the exercise, Youngblood was swaying back and forth.

The second exercise conducted, was the Walk and Turn. The line used was a strip of yellow tape placed upon the pavement by this Officer. During the instructions, Youngblood had difficulty getting into and remaining in the starting position. Youngblood lost her balance and stepped out of the starting position. Youngblood then said "I didn`t consent to this", to which this Officer advised her of her Taylor Warning`s. Youngblood acknowledged and agreed to continue. After this Officer provided Youngblood with instructions for the exercise, she again said she did not consent to this, to which this Officer reminded her of the discussion we just had and she again agreed to continue. During the first set of steps, Youngblood missed heel-to-toe on all steps and missed the line twice. Youngblood also raised her arms more than six inches from her sides and took 11 steps rather than nine. The reason Youngblood took 11 steps and not more, was because she had reached the positive curb on the side of the road and was told to turn around. Youngblood conducted an improper turnaround by walking around rather than taking a series of small steps. During the return set of steps, Youngblood again missed heel-to-toe on each step. Youngblood also missed the line on step 10 and took 12 steps rather than nine and raised her right hand more than six inches from her side.

The third exercise conducted, was the One-Leg Stand. During the exercise, Youngblood raised her left foot. Youngblood initially did not raise her foot high enough and had to be told to look at her foot. Youngblood swayed side-to-side throughout the exercise and raised both arms more than six inches from her sides throughout the exercise. Youngblood also hopped twice, shuffled her right foot on the ground and placed her foot down three times prior to being told to do so, thus ending the exercise early.

Based on this Officer`s observations, Youngblood was placed under arrest at 0201 hours. During a tow inventory of the vehicle, Ofc Hennessy 409 located contraband. Inside Youngblood`s purse was a vape pen with a clear cartridge that contained a thick brown substance. Based on this Officer`s training and experience, the substance appeared to be Tetrahydrocannabinol oil. The substance field tested positive as such. This Officer checked the Medical Marijuana Database to see if Youngblood was a patient, it was determined she was not. Same was seized by Ofc Hennessy and booked into evidence.

At PBSO BAT, this Officer requested Youngblood provide a breath sample for the purpose of determining its alcohol content, to which she refused. This Officer read Florida Implied Consent to Youngblood to which she acknowledged and again refused at 0312 hours.

Based on the results of the investigation, this Officer has probable to charge Madison Youngblood with driving under the influence to the extent her normal faculties were impaired, in violation of FSS 316.193(1)(A). Youngblood was also in possession of banned substance, in violation of FSS 893.13(6)(A). All aforementioned events all occured in the county of Palm Beach, in the state of Florida.
