NARR

The following incident occurred in the City of Delray Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida.

On December 12, 2025, while on routine patrol, I was flagged down to respond to a disturbance in the 200 block of E Atlantic Avenue. Upon arriving at the scene, I observed a white male subject engaging in a verbal altercation with a group of individuals. Notably, the white male subject was accompanied by a white female subject. The group informed me that the white male subject was physically abusing the white female subject. The male subject was later identified as Matthew Brown, born on March 27, 1980, and the female subject was identified as Christina Musson, born on January 8, 1996. I separated the two parties and initiated a criminal investigation.

As I began speaking to Musson, she immediately started crying. After calming her down, she revealed that she and Brown are married and had gotten into an altercation. Musson explained that the incident occurred while they were downtown for a work holiday party. She stated that after leaving Johnnie Brown`s, she walked to the pizza shop alone, leaving Brown behind. However, Brown had followed her to the pizza shop, where they became involved in a verbal argument that escalated when Brown pushed Musson.

I read Brown his Miranda rights and began to ask for his side of the story. Brown confirmed they were downtown for a work holiday party. He stated that after leaving Johnnie Brown`s, Musson walked to the pizza shop alone, leaving him behind. Brown said this made him upset but denied pushing Musson. While speaking with Brown, I detected the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage on his breath, and I observed that his eyes were very glossy.

During my investigation, an independent witness approached me who wished to remain anonymous, but I recorded his statement on body-worn camera. The witness confirmed Musson`s account and added that Brown actually pushed Musson against a wall. The witness also stated that he tried to intervene, and Brown attempted to engage in a physical altercation with him.

Based on the above stated facts there is probable cause to charge Matthew Brown with Simple Battery (Domestic) and Disorderly Intoxication in Violence in violation of FSS 784.03(1A1) and FSS 856.011.
